Home burglary victim contests crime figures

By DALE GOWING
Of The Roman Staff

Official figures indicate that Romulus experienced an overall decline in burglaries in the past few months, but at least one resident said that is "hogwash."

In fact, at the time the police statistics were released three weeks ago, the resident said her subdivision in the Smith Road and Middlebelt area was the scene of 12 break-ins during a 4-day period.

The woman, who asked that her name be withheld, went on to say that the dozen burglaries is a typical number for a 4-to-5 day period in the residential area.

"WE WERE counting the burglaries that week when we read in the paper that the police said burglaries are down," she said. "We couldn't believe it, since there is all this crime going on around here."

The woman, who said she lives on Kempa Street, added that not only burglaries but robberies are a problem at the nearby Vince and Sons Market where she is a clerk.

'... area residents and police know who the burglars are.'

"It's been robbed seven or eight times in the last year and three times this year," she said. "I was working during two of them."

The woman, who said she is 43 years old and has seven children, added that her home was burglarized during the summer and $300 was taken. An elderly man living on nearby Burton Street had $1,700 stolen from a safe, she added.

AND THE most frustrating part of it all, she continued, is that area residents and the police know who the burglars are but can do nothing about it.

"I know and the police know that it is kids from the neighborhood doing it, but the police can't seem to do anything about it because they're juveniles," she said.

"They have their own private little burglary ring and seem to be able to get away with anything. Their parents don't care about them," she added.

She said Romulus Juvenile Officer William Chapoton has been trying to deal with the situation, but apparently has been unsuccessful. Chapoton, who is assigned to the city by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, was unavailable for comment.

THE RESIDENT said surprisingly, most of the break-ins in her neighborhood are daytime crimes, and homeowners are living scared.

"There's not much we can do about it, even though we have locks on our doors and dogs in the yards. I have a shotgun in case they try to come in while we're home," she added.

The woman, who said she has lived in her home 11 years, claimed she and other burglary victims get little sympathy or satisfaction from the police.

"The police investigate, but they can't do anything," she said. "Once when I was working at the store it was robbed, and I went downtown and picked the man out of a lineup and even testified against him. I helped the police lock the guy up, but when my house is burglarized they say they can't do anything about it."

POLICE statistics released Oct. 21 indicated that Romulus experienced a zero increase in breaking-and-entering crimes from August to October, but the number of burglaries rose on the whole during the first nine months of the year.

Police say much of the crime is committed by persons who take advantage of the easy access from I-94.

"They just drop in off the expressway, pull a break-in and they're gone before you know it," said a police official.

Goodby gravel

This rural-like area at Farnum and California streets in Romulus will have a distinctive new look soon after the paving crews put a layer of asphalt over the gravel roadbed. The markers along the shoulder indicate where the paving boundaries will be. The paving is part of a $1,500,000 program to upgrade 20-25 miles of city streets.—The Romulus Roman photo.

Groundbreaking date set New school plans continue

By JEAN CALMEN
The Roman Special Writer

Groundbreaking ceremonies for North Junior High School on Wick Road were set for 11 a.m. on Dec. 7 as plans for construction took another step forward this week.

The Romulus Board of Education

Monday night approved contract bids totaling $1,257,575 for the second phase of the work, including the laying of the foundation and the erection of the building's structure.

The board's action, based upon the recommendation of architect Charles Sherman brought the total contracts to $1,466,255.

Contracts for phase one, including site clearing, sewer and water, amounted to $208,680. They were approved on Sept. 9.

The school, scheduled for completion by the beginning of the school in 1976, is part of a program including the construction of three elementary schools.

The first of the three, Wick Elementary School is expected to be ready by September 1975.

Bids for furniture for the elementary school will be considered at the board's next meeting on Nov. 25.

With 19 positions

Federal funds to help ease city jobless rate

Nineteen Romulus residents either are off the unemployment rosters or will be soon, thanks to $163,726 coming to the city from the federal government.

The appropriated funds are part of the government's multi-million dollar Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) program, which grants money to cities to be used in hiring and training unemployed residents for city jobs.

The money originally is given to the counties, which in turn distribute it among their member cities. Townships can receive no CETA funds.

ACCORDING to Romulus city officials, a total of 19 jobs will be created by the time the hiring process concludes. Hiring began in August and 10 persons have been given jobs so far. Officials said about 100 persons have applied for positions.

"It's great when we can have a program like this to help cut unemployment, especially now when it is so bad," said Romulus Treasurer John B. Lewkowicz.

Among the positions being created within the city are office, clerical, mechanic, Department of Public Works (DPW) jobs and an animal control officer. Romulus City Clerk Leonard Folmar said two mechanic instructors will be hired for the DPW "to train other employees and upgrade the department's skills."

The CETA funds also will be used to pay the salary of a new federal grant officer position being created within the city. The grant officer will deal solely with trying to obtain grant money for Romulus.

IN ADDITION, a "records technician" will be hired, to put city hall records and files in order, Folmar said.

"We've never had any organized system of keeping records here," he added. Folmar, along with Lewkowicz and City Personnel Manager Lorraine Kubiak, was instrumental in obtaining the funds.

Under CETA rules, no employee's salary may be higher than $10,000 annually. Folmar said Wayne County, Romulus' grant agent, recommends an $8,000 per year salary average. He added that if the city wishes to pay a CETA employee more than $10,000, it must subsidize anything over the $10,000 mark.

He said the pay scale is the same as other city employees.

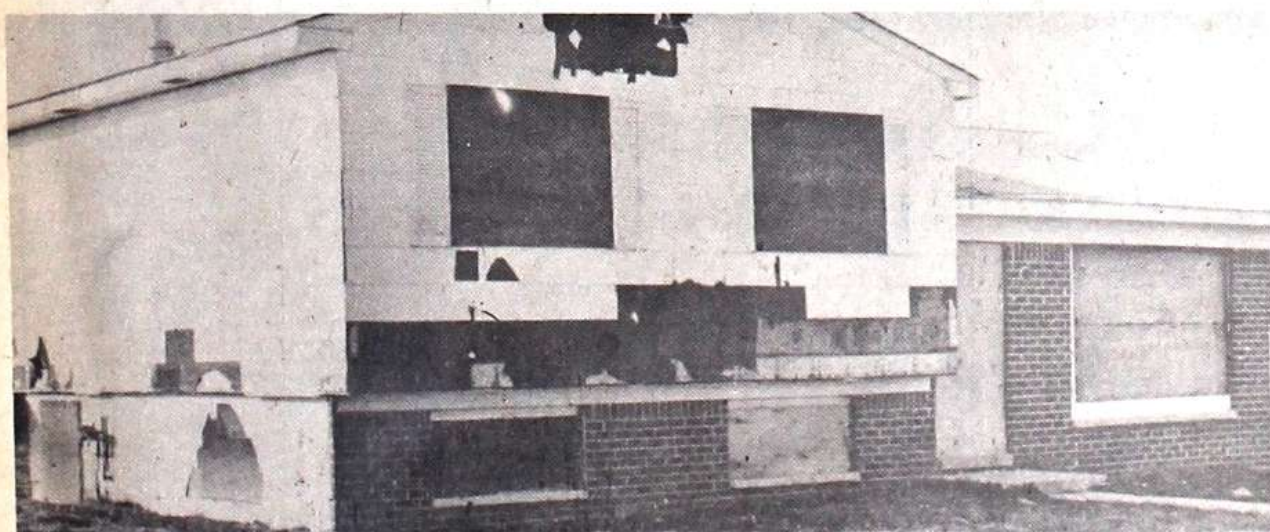

The only requirement for a CETA job is that the applicant must have been out of work at least 30 days prior to applying. The city, in addition, will train all persons hired.

FUNDING FOR Romulus' share of the CETA program continues until June 30, 1976, when the 19 persons, if still employed either will be absorbed into the regular city budget or dropped from the payroll.

The $163,726 was appropriated in two parts, $80,064 in August and $83,662 earlier this month.

Applications for the jobs may be obtained from the city clerk's office. The telephone number is 941-0666.

Part of the 'cancer'?

This abandoned house at the corner of Forestdale and Harrison in the Meadows Subdivision in Romulus is one of about 70 in the area which Mayor Terry L. Troutt says represents a "cancerous" growth danger to the area. Troutt said he hopes the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), which owns many of the 70 homes, will renovate the buildings and eliminate the eyesores. — The Romulus Roman photo.

At airport

Officials to discuss deer

Detroit Metropolitan Airport officials, Romulus authorities and Department of Natural Resources experts were scheduled to meet Tuesday at the Romulus Public Library in an effort to resolve the dilemma of how to remove a herd of deer roaming throughout the southern fringes of the airport.

The plight of the deer has gained considerable public attention and brought criticism from naturalists and conservationists opposed to having the deer destroyed.

Suggestions on how to rid the airport of the deer, which officials say could cause a serious accident if they wandered onto a runway, have ranged from shooting them to drugging and capturing the deer for release elsewhere. However, Louis J. Sugo, public relations director for the Wayne County Road Commission, which operates the airport, assured all those concerned that there will be no "mass slaughter" of the animals.

If the deer do have to be shot to remove them from the premises, he said it would be a gradual process.

Community walk-a-thon nets $10,000 in area

The Belleville-Van Buren Township area's first community-wide walk-a-thon for this year's March of Dimes fund drive netted a reported $10,000 in pledges.

The walk-a-thon, initiated and sponsored by South Junior High School in the Van Buren Public School District, attracted 550 persons.

The 20-mile walk began at 8 a.m. on Nov. 2 from in front of the K-mart Store located at Rawsonville Road and I-94 and ended at Rys Street in the central business district of the City of Belleville.

PERSONS participating in the walk-a-thon included area students, teachers and staff personnel from both South and North Junior High Schools, parents, businessmen, members of the school district's administrative staff, community leaders and area legislators.

It was reported last week that only 20 of the 550 persons who joined the walk-a-thon dropped out before finishing the 20-mile walk.

Members of the Belleville Police Department, Van Buren Township Police Department, Michigan State Police and rangers from the Lower Huron park escorted the walkers.

Dr. John MacDermid of Belleville accompanied the walk-a-thon participants. Belleville Mayor Royce E. Smith; Rep. Lee West (R-Ypsilanti); and Bill Kandler, aide to State Sen. William Faust, were among the politicians in the walk-a-thon.

The walk-a-thon was one of five projects sponsored by South Junior High School this year for the March of Dimes.

Others included a candy sale, a "Fun Night" and dance.

Area merchants, and others sponsored walk-a-thon participants by pledging varying amounts per mile walked by their entry.

Mayor Troutt says Zaborowski may have no courtroom

The newly-elected 34th District Court judge could be without a courtroom on Jan. 1.

Henry Zaborowski on that date will join James B. Stone on the bench, due to a move by the state Legislature to lighten the workloads of various district court judges in Michigan.

Stone's case loads steadily have been increasing and prompted the Legislature to call for the election of another judge to assist Stone. Zaborowski, a Belleville attorney, defeated Fred H. Hogan of Ypsilanti for the job last week. The 34th District includes Romulus and Belleville and Van Buren, Sumpter and Huron Townships.

HOWEVER, Romulus Mayor Terry L. Troutt insists there is no court space or office space—or money—for the new judge. It is Troutt's contention that the present 34th District Court building on Eureka between Merriman and Middlebelt is too small even for one judge, and that neither the city nor the state have funds budgeted to build a new court or support a new judge.

"The state Legislature gave us a judge and no money," he said. "There is nothing in Romulus' budget for it and the state so far has provided none. I don't know how we're going to provide him (Zaborowski) a staff, office and courtroom without any money."

Plans for the new Romulus Metro Plaza on Wayne Road between Ecorse and Van Born call for the building of a new court by private concerns, Troutt continued. But that still is several years away. Zaborowski begins his new job Jan. 1 and possibly will be headquartered temporarily in the Romulus City Hall council chambers, Troutt added.

Triggering the Romulus concern is a state statute reportedly requiring the District Control Unit or largest city in each district—in this case Romulus—to pay all court bills not covered by other member municipalities.

ACCORDING TO Troutt, two-thirds of each member municipality's collected court fines and costs are to go toward the operation of the court, with the final one-third going back to the community. Therefore, any expenses not covered by those funds must be supplemented by Romulus, the District Control Unit.

Troutt said he feels that each member municipality should not "automatically" get a return of one-third of its court receipts, but as much of the money as necessary should go toward its operation.

"If it takes all the district's money to run the court, that's the way it should be," he said. "If the state statute keeps the return figure at one-third, Romulus will have to supplement the court costs. But we are not going to."

John Crum, a city attorney, is investigating the statute and said preliminary findings indicate that Romulus "has the obligation" to supplement the costs.

"HOWEVER, the statute does not specifically define what portions of the costs the District Control Unit must pay for," he said.

Crum added that his interpretation of the statute is that the member municipalities may agree to share in the total court cost, taking the ultimate burden off of Romulus.

"But because the court is in Romulus, the city probably will have to foot the bill," he said.

Legislation giving the state control of all district courts is pending in Lansing, Troutt said, but he added that Senate sources told him the bill wouldn't emerge from the Senate Judiciary Committee before the end of the year.

"THE STATE has been considering taking the courts over for some time and even budgeted about $9 million in the last two years for it," he said. "But the bill has to be passed before the money can be used. It passed the House last spring but is hung up in the Senate Judiciary Committee, and people I've talked to up there say it won't come out in 1974."

"If not, it means there will be no money available Jan. 1 when the new judge begins."

He asserted that the state should "come out with an appropriation for communities in this predicament" while the debate over the state court-takeover continues.

"There's no room for a permanent court or office in Romulus and the judge may at first be able to use the council room in city hall as a court room," Troutt said.

A deal between the City of Romulus and the league, calling for the city to take over the building's mortgage payments in return for ownership of it, has fallen through, according to Thelma Matthews, league financial secretary.

"We decided we'd keep the building," she said. "All of the league members met last week and voted not to give it to the City. It's a beautiful building, worth $85,000, and we don't want to give it up."

The 15-year-old, 80-by-50 foot structure is located at 11495 Wahrman.

THE MID-OCTOBER deal between the league and Romulus City was made because a league official cited the organization's inability to continue meeting the monthly $184 mortgage payments.

President Alfred Todd at the time said the league's seriously declining membership was the cause. Todd subsequently resigned as president on Oct. 24, Mrs. Matthews said, because of his belief that the building should be given to the City and the league relieved of the payments.

"We won't have any trouble meeting the payments now," she added. "We're having several fundraising functions starting with a New Year's cabaret, plays and dances. There already are teen dances there every Friday night and we collected $230 in donations at a recent meeting."

She said that "just a few" of the league's 34 members wanted to give the building to the city, which had planned to continue using it as a recreational center.

"ANXIETY and apathy were the reasons for the original deal," Mrs. Matthews continued. There was anxiety on the part of some members, and others just didn't care. So the league said it had no alternative but to get rid of it."

She said the membership met last week to make a final decision and elected to cancel the deal.

Although the city is losing a recreation center of its own, Mrs. Matthews assured residents that "anyone can use it."

"Anybody in the community can belong to the league and use the building," she said. "We're urging more people to join and are going to elect new officers Dec. 5."

The city had agreed to pay an out-standing balance of $15,376.02 on the building, which originally cost $60,000.

Parents decry 'dirty' poems

Parents of several Romulus High School students appeared before the Romulus Board of Education at its meeting this week to protest mimeographed handouts of poetry they called indecent and inappropriate material for study.

Betty Brewer of 30511 Cherry, Romulus, Monday night presented to members of the board and the audience copies of four of the poems which she said were most offensive.

The poems were taken from four mimeographed pages that Mrs. Brewer said were brought home by her teen-aged daughter.

She said the students in a literature class open to all grades at the high school had received the sheets and had been instructed to read the material and be prepared to tell the class what it meant to them.

The sheets did not include the name of the teacher or the author of the poetry.

After hearing the poems read aloud by one of the parents, Dorothy Nesler of 34645 Michele Dr., board member Diane L. Boger said:

"I WOULD much rather they were taught Shakespeare."

She added that she had heard of the material earlier in the day when a parent called to complain.

She made a motion that any materials to be handed out in the schools should be okayed by the principal or an assistant. The motion passed.

In addition, the board instructed James Garfield, assistant superintendent in charge of personnel, to conduct an investigation and report to Supt. Robert L. McConoghy.

WHEN EIGHT or 10 parents asked for assurance that the incident would not be repeated, McConoghy said he could not give that assurance.

"There is no way that this board, in spite of its good intentions, can guarantee something is not going to be handed out in the schools," he said.

"It is alleged by the accusers that a teacher passed out this material," Mc-

Coneghy added. "If our complete investigation proves this to be true then appropriate action will be taken."

The superintendent said there is no way he or any school board member could know such material was being passed out in the high school either by a person other than a teacher or a teacher, without notification.

"IT IS A VERY touchy matter and I am very interested and intend to get at the bottom of these accusations. I want to know what actually was passed out," he added.

"The accusers stated the material was passed out for home work. It is pretty hard for me to believe a teacher would do that."

Garfield added that details of the investigation might not be made public but that

Junior Miss crowned

BELLEVILLE — Gayle Yvonne Simons, a 17-year-old Belleville High School senior, has been selected as Belleville's 1975 Junior Miss. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Simons of 41565 McBride St., Belleville.

Expansion opposed

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP — Continued opposition to an expansion of the Willow Run Airport as presented and proposed by the Wayne County Road Commission will be among the major goals of the newly elected administration in Van Buren Township. The proposed expansion would eliminate many homes, businesses, two schools and the present township hall.

Board plans new lab

BELLEVILLE — A new and specialized clerical and secretarial lab for the office education program at Belleville High School has been authorized by the Van Buren Board of Education. Director of Instruction Douglas Brown said the program meets state guidelines and is a state re-imbursement program.

Or to swear in front of women

It's a felony to wave red flag

By WES THORP
Enterprise - Roman Lansing Bureau

Just a note to Ohio State fans who have tickets to watch the Buckeyes when they play Michigan State at East Lansing or the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

The State of Michigan can throw you in the jug if you are not careful when you display Ohio State's colors—red and gray.

Leave your red flags at home! That's right, leave them at home, because state law says if you show them in public you are guilty of a felony.

ANY DOUBTERS can check the 1970 version of Michigan's Compiled Laws which state: "Any person who shall display a red flag in any public assembly, parade or demonstration in this state is guilty of a felony."

God only knows why such a law is on the books. As a matter of fact, if you read the previous sentence in front of somebody else you are guilty of a misdemeanor.

The law states: "Any person who shall willfully blaspheme the holy name of God, by cursing or contumeliously reproaching God, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

'Any person who shall willfully blaspheme the holy name of God shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.'

Those two laws which are contained in the state's penal code which the legislature talks about overhauling, but, for some reason, never seems to get around to it.

WITHOUT GETTING into the more serious questions about revising the state's criminal code, such as plea bargaining and indeterminate sentencing, the lawmakers should devote a day or two to just bringing the statutes up-to-date.

They make for interesting reading during a lunch break, but they don't do anything to encourage respect for the law. Many take the attitude that a law is a law and if it's on the books it should be obeyed.

This is not a new attitude. It's been around since our early cousins penned their names on the Declaration of Independence and said this nation will be a nation of laws and not of men.

If that still is the case, then some of our laws in Michigan are just plain ridiculous. If they were enforced, our jails and our courts would be filled to the rafters.

FOR EXAMPLE, state law says:

"Indecent language in presence of women or children—Any person who shall use indecent, immoral, obscene, vulgar or insulting language in the presence or hearing of any woman or child shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

The fines which would be collected for violation of this particular statute would be enough to allow a local unit of government to lower their tax rate. People swear. It's on the television, it's in public and it even happens in many homes.

Further examples of what's between the covers of the state lawbooks show that it's illegal to scalp tickets for entertainment, such as football games, the theater or the circus.

If you do you are guilty of a misdemeanor which means that you can get soaked for a stiff fine and get free room and board from the local jailer.

BUT, JUST go to most any college football game. Take Michigan State, for example. Standing outside the stadium, within spitting distance of the police are persons hawking tickets for the game and very seldom are they for the regular admission price.

There's another law which prohibits people from wearing masks in public, except during Halloween and for masquerade parties.

This probably was enacted to keep groups such as the Ku Klux Klan from parading around in their bedsheets and pillowcases and terrorizing people in the process.

One could continue reciting examples of laws which have outlived their usefulness. It's unlawful to duel, or to challenge somebody to a duel and forget about stealing someone's horse when it's hitched outside a building.

A CLEANING OUT of the lawbooks would not require a massive amount of money or time. Lawmakers could let a couple of secretaries pore over the green volumes making notes of the archaic laws which need to be either changed or eliminated.

Things seem to be out of whack when a man can get a stiffer penalty for stirring the Indians up than for deserting his wife and children.

As we see it
They deserve apology

Romulus Mayor Terry L. Troutt has been unfair in his criticism of The Meadows subdivision in that city. Troutt called the abandoning of U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) homes "like a cancer."

"It's a bad situation there now," the mayor said. "There are so many abandoned houses and many are beyond rehabilitation."

While the mayor is right in criticizing HUD for allowing the houses to remain in such condition, he is unfair in criticizing other homeowners of The Meadows. The mayor said that abandoning the houses is prevalent because the residents generally don't own homes to begin with.

Houses in HUD subdivisions such as The Meadows are federally subsidized homes sold to low-income families. The homeowners pay part of the house payment, while the federal government picks up the rest. The homeowners are buying the houses; they are not just renting as the mayor suggests.

The mayor said: "A family will live in one of them for maybe 18 months and move out. In the process the house gets vandalized and then is abandoned. Next, the neighbor decides to move because he dislikes living next to the house. It spreads like a cancer."

If the mayor's cancerous prediction is valid, then more than 70 homes in the subdivision of 400 would be abandoned. At one time, the mayor admits, there were more than 150 abandoned houses there.

We feel Mayor Troutt owes the more than 350 residents of The Meadows, who are trying their best to make a home for themselves in Romulus, an apology.

Chamber president explains WIN position

By ARCH BOOTH
President, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Since my walkout from the first meeting of President Ford's Citizens Action Committee to Fight Inflation widely was reported — and in some cases, very badly reported — and since

I continue to support the President's recommendations for curbing inflation, a few words of explanation are in order.

The committee's idea of fighting inflation is to ask businessmen to sign pledges not to raise prices more than costs and wages require, and to ask consumers to sign pledges not to shop at stores that do not comply.

Businessmen who sign the pledge get to display a WIN flag. The committee likes flags and buttons and other public relations paraphernalia.

I have two objections to this approach: First, it is not even-handed. President Ford called for restraint by both business and labor. But the committee mentioned only business. When I asked about this absurd omission, I was told that it had been decided not to include labor. Exactly who made that decision was not explained.

Second, and much more important, the committee's program is based on a false theory of inflation. Neither business nor labor causes inflation. Inflation is caused when the supply of money increases faster than the supply of goods and services. And it is federal deficit spending that causes the money supply to increase too rapidly.

Shifting public attention to business, creates a smokescreen for the politicians to hide behind. Since price increases are the most visible symptom of inflation, people who don't have any background in economics understandably are led to the conclusion that the increases are a cause rather than an effect.

Further, the local vigilante groups designated to "enforce" compliance with the pledge are unlikely to have the skills required to judge whether a given price increase really is justified by cost increases, or perhaps by something else.

Therefore, their activities are likely to lead to misunderstanding and injustice — or at best, to nothing but a lot of wasted effort.

All of this I tried to explain to the committee. The explanation was quickly brushed aside. I reiterated my support of the rest of the President's program. But I said that if all the committee intended to do was create buttons, banners and vigilantes, I didn't think I could contribute to it, and I might as well leave.

Russell Freeburg, the representative from the White House staff, said: "I think it would be a good thing if you do leave."

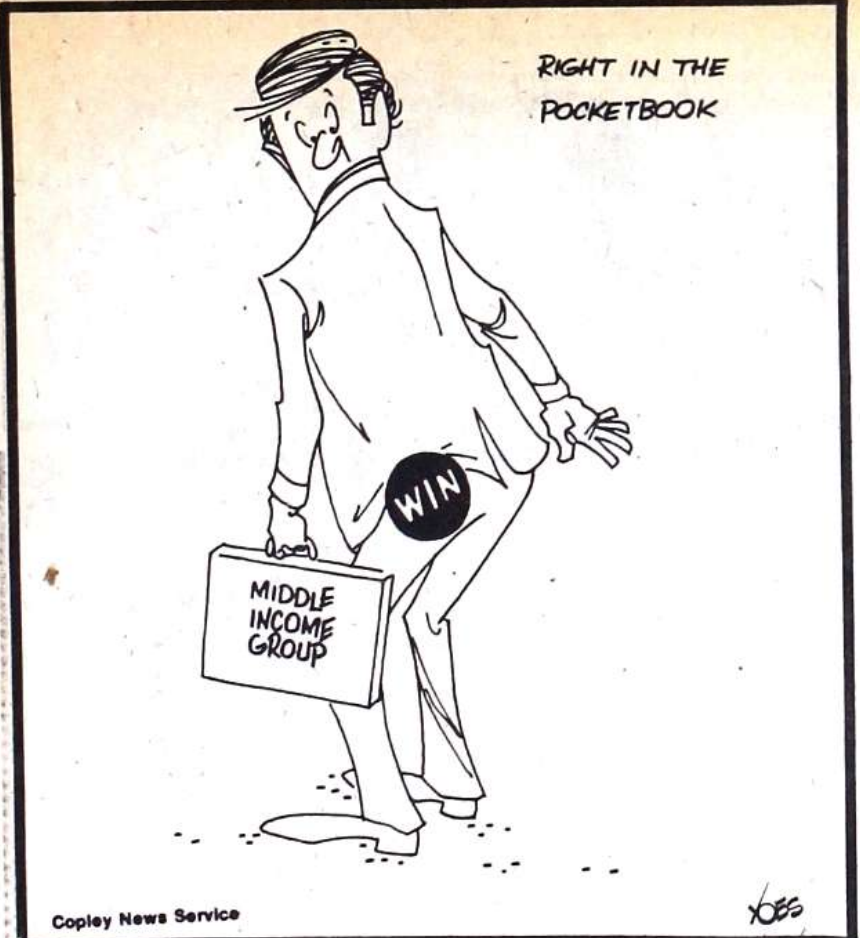

So I did.

Inflation can be controlled by sound monetary and fiscal policies at the federal level, by steps to increase the nation's productive capacity, by removing roadblocks to efficiency, by stimulating market competition, and by breaking worldwide supply bottlenecks.

These things are the heart of President Ford's program. I supported it when he announced it. And I still do. So does the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

But inflation is too grave and too complex a problem to be treated like showbiz. I believe cooler heads on the White House staff realize this. For that reason, I intend to remain on the committee, to make it clear that America's business community is solidly behind any serious effort to stabilize our troubled economy.

U.S. Congress getting younger; Will we see idealistic reform?

By STAN OPOTOWSKY
The Eagle Special Columnist

Even without a monumental toppling of the incumbents in this year's election, the Congress is getting younger.

The departure of many of the Old Guard leads many to make the hopeful prediction that a new wave of legislators will scorn the seamy ways of the past and give us idealistic reform.

Alas, there is no reason to believe that.

And how does he vote two ways? They rig the system so he can. There will be a test vote, and then a real vote. Or a meaningless amendment placed on the agenda only to allow for the phoney votes before the real thing comes along on the principal bill.

This is an era of crisis for the Congressmen because the Watergate disclosures have produced a cry for reform. They are busy studying reform legislation which must be carefully tailored to make certain it sounds like reform yet changes nothing.

Any election law passed by Congress will be rigged to protect the incumbents insofar as possible. And should this gambit still fail because of an overwhelming insistence of the voters that the rascals must be tossed out, then the Congress will be injected with a whole new crowd of people.

And these people immediately will try to entrench themselves in the same fashion as their predecessors.

"Why not?" you may ask. "Can you expect the Congressmen to be more idealistic than anyone else? Does anyone anywhere plot to do himself out of a job?"

Not unless he happens to have another career.

That might be the hope. To elect amateurs who have no compelling need to remain in Congress. Then we might have representative government.

BLESSING

That's a way to look at inflation

Most residents in Western Wayne County look at energy shortages and inflation pessimistically. But some others think shortages and inflation may turn out to be blessings in disguise.

They will compel more realistic public attitudes toward actions that must be taken in the nation's interest, balance the budget and ease inflation.

It would curtail endless delay in building such things as power-generating stations, required to produce necessary amounts of electric energy and drilling oil wells in the nation's offshore waters to produce more petroleum products.

Indeed, more positive public attitudes in such matters as these may come just in the nick of time to help solve some of our most pressing problems.

According to public opinion surveys, a majority of people, for instance, support increased offshore oil exploration and nuclear development, and strip mining, presumably with adequate land reclamation, is viewed in more favorable public light than ever before.

Perhaps the most significant finding, considering the extensive public criticism of most facets of the American business system in recent years, is that more than 60 percent of the people queried expressed the view that the U.S. system of private enterprise, business and industry basically is sound and that faults can be corrected.

There still is broad concern with preserving environmental values but, at the same time, a growing recognition that is neither practical nor necessary to halt civilization in its tracks in order to accomplish this objective.

Adequate supplies of electric energy are fundamental to jobs, high-living standards and a decent condition of human life. Reflecting this realization, 82 per cent of the people questioned in one poll expressed the opinion that enough power plants should be built to guarantee a steady supply of electricity, and 57 per cent felt that it is necessary to go into a greatly-expanded program of atomic energy development.

This type of public sentiment is particularly significant in view of the effort which now must be made to achieve energy self-sufficiency or something close to it for the United States in the years immediately ahead.

Mindless environmental road-blocking of essential development is not in the public interest. The common sense of the American people has been the great strength of our nation since its founding. Present indications are that it may once again come to the rescue in a time of decision.

Fire fighters host 600 at party

Six hundred youngsters attended this year's Halloween party sponsored by the Van Buren Township Fire Department No. 2.

Although the attendance at the inside-the-school Halloween party was below expectations due to good weather, sponsors said all of the youngsters had a very good time.

THE HIGHLIGHTS of the annual event included movies, puppets, door prizes and best costume prizes as well as refreshments and candy gifts.

Fire fighter Robert Beck, in commenting on the attendance drop this year, said: "The unusual good weather for Halloween night kept some of the area youngsters busy in a door-to-door trick-or-treating instead of being at the party. Also the time for the party's start was reported to be 7:30 p.m. instead of 5:30 p.m."

The winners of first to fifth place honors in the costume contests were presented with prizes as were those who were the contest's semi-finalists.

Romulus OKs heated trailer

Romulus officials have approved the purchase of a trailer to serve as a warm-up building for the snowmobile run at Romulus Park No. 1 at Beverly and Henry Ruff.

The trailer, a 20 by 40 foot electrically heated structure, is being purchased from the Monroe School District for $4,000.

It will cost an additional $1,800 to have the trailer moved and set up on a cement foundation at the park.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt has suggested a local public service group might set up a snack bar in the building and retain the profits.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

HAROLD REDISKE, JR.—DIRECTORS

With no reminder or prodding needed, every one has reason and should be glad to give thanks on the special day of Thanksgiving. Some people at times are inclined to measure appreciation of and for visible possessions, unmindful of intangibles for which thanks should be given. Actually, no matter what individual circumstances may be, no one can truthfully say he or she has no reason to be thankful.

It is our custom to associate food with Thanksgiving Day. Fine. But a Divine Providence has bestowed countless other blessings upon us for which all of us should be thankful. For example, no matter what the state of health, there should be gratitude for life itself.

Whatever basic senses one has; sight, hearing, etc., including the capability for fun and laughter are further reasons for thankfulness. As Americans all of us can be thankful for our freedoms guaranteed and protected by our Bill of Rights. Next week we will submit a thought about the changing times concept of Thanksgiving Day. Watch for it. You will find it interesting.

SORE FEET AND HAPPY HEARTS — Shown are just a few of the 550 persons who participated in the Belleville-Van Buren Township area's first community-wide walk-a-thon for the March of Dimes. Covering a route of 20 miles, the marchers succeeded in collecting pledges totaling a reported $10,000. The event attracted area students, teacher, school administrators, parents, community leaders and businessmen who were escorted in their walk by representatives of several local and state police departments. — The Enterprise-Roman photo.

School leaders vote to unionize

Principals, directors and deans of the Romulus Community School District have voted to join the Romulus Association of School Building Administrators, according to state officials.

In an election supervised and certified by the Employment Relations Commission of the Michigan Department of Labor, the vote was 17-0 in favor of unionization.

The Romulus Association of School Building Administrators will represent all principals, assistant principals, directors of special education, athletics, adult education, career and vocational education, dean of students and administrative assistants in any future collective bargaining.

Area artists eligible for scholastic contest

The scholastic art competition for Southeastern Michigan is back again this year after a 1-year absence. The exhibition will be held at the Tel-Twelve Mall from Feb. 13 through March 1.

All schools from Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair and Washtenaw counties have been invited to participate in this year's competition.

Entries will be accepted at the Tel-Twelve Mall, Southfield, from Jan. 27 through Feb. 1.

Chamber moves office. And inducts members

The members of the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce have been very active in recent weeks, helping maintain a festive atmosphere when the Michigan State Lottery came to town, moving their office to a new location and accepting new members into their ranks.

The chamber office has been moved from 152 Main St. in Belleville to 116 Fourth St., according to group executive secretary Theodore Kuckelman. The chamber phone number, however, remains unchanged — 697-7151.

On Oct. 24, when the lottery came to town and Van Buren Township dedicated its new conference center, coffee and doughnuts were served and sponsored by the following area lottery agents:

Rogalle's, Foodville, Perry Drugs, Hamilton Hardware, Beck's Grocery, Joe and Leo's Party Store, Richardson's Pharmacy, Kirk's Drugs, Boyer's Market, Lodge Lounge and the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber issued a special thanks to Martha Morton, Marilyn Montgomery, Sherry Erb, Leona Van Buhler, Jeanette Domen and Jean Chudzinski for their help in setting up and serving the refreshments.

Five new businesses joined the chamber recently, including Dan Arrington and Don Yeatts of Aura Construction Co., 6644 Belleville Rd.; Louis Raden and Harold Oestrike of the Winchester-Thunderbird Public Shooting Center, 46901 Van Born; Joe and Rita Stillwagon of the Woodstone Inn, 2100 Rawsonville Rd.; George Daunt and Larry Priskorn of Improved Construction Co., 51 E. Huron River Dr.; and Al Cicotte of Prudential Insurance Co.

The chamber has also set Dec. 14 as the date for its annual Christmas parade, and Dale Kaulitz, superintendent of the Van Buren Public School District, was named chairman of the event.

And know-how helps

Energy conservation still in vogue

With "saving" the only work associated with energy today, Western Wayne County residents may find that a few helpful hints on conserving electricity not only will trim their usage but shave off the size of the monthly bill.

Although the air conditioning season is long gone, residents will find that an efficient cooling system is the best energy saver. Several units now are being given the Energy Efficiency Rating (EER).

The number is derived by dividing the unit's watts into the BTUs. An air conditioner with 8,000 BTUs and 1,000 watts would earn a high efficiency rating of 8.

OTHER KNACKS for saving energy with air conditioners is to seal cracks around windows and doors and to wash the filters frequently.

That annoying drip you might hear at night is a source of energy loss, especially if it's hot water. One drop a second can add up to 200 gallons of lost water each month.

And showers instead of baths is another way of holding down the use of heated water.

In the kitchen homemakers will find that flat bottomed pans heat more efficiently. Also using the appropriate size pans on similar sized burners and putting food to be baked in the oven as soon as it's preheated can trim down on the amount of energy used.

WASHING FULL LOADS of laundry can save not only electricity, but also water, and when drying a full load can trim the operating time. Minutes also can be shaved from using the dryer, if the lint trap is cleaned after every load.

For those opting for off-season vacations, leave the home or apartment with the thermostat set at 50 degrees and turn the refrigerator up so it runs a little warmer. However, don't neglect security. An inexpensive timer can turn on lights for short periods each day, giving the appearance of an occupied residence.

If you live in an older home, it's wise to check wiring. Lights, motors and electrical appliances need good wiring to operate efficiently.

And overloading circuits with octopus wiring of four or five extension cords only tends to cause lights to flicker when appliances are turned on.

LIGHTS SHOULD BE turned off in unoccupied rooms, as with televisions, Christmas tree lights and other unused appliances.

However, enough light should be used in hallways and stairways as a safety precaution.

Good insulation in ceilings and walls probably is the foremost way to save energy. Six inches of ceiling insulation below attics, plus storm doors and windows can cut heat loss by one-third.

Outside walls need less than four inches of insulation while unheated areas, such as crawlspaces and basements, need four inches secured firmly to the floor above the unheated areas.

CLOSING WINDOW shades and drapes at night and opening them during the day also acts as a heating system, allowing the sun's warmth in during the day and keeping the house's warmth in at night.

By following a few of the energy tips offered, residents may be able to help trim the amount of fuel used in the United States while saving a bit of money.

After sports events

Stores work to end school trouble

One of the Belleville area's grocery establishments located in Belleville's central business district, has announced a change in store hours because of problems following athletic events at Belleville High School.

Al Rizzo, owner and operator of Foodville Supermarkets, Monday said that his store and adjacent parking lot, located at 524 Main St., will be closed at 10 p.m. on Friday nights following football games at the Belleville High School athletic field, or other nights when sporting events such as basketball are held at the school.

The present store hours at Foodville are 7 a.m. to midnight Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Sundays.

The early closing hour on nights of sporting events is being made to cooperate with city police in their efforts to prevent incidents of fighting and vandalism following competitive athletics at the high school field, Rizzo said.

At a recent session of the city council, an increase in law enforcement officers assigned to the high school was approved.

City Councilman Howard R. Stinehour, who also is the city's police commissioner, requested a larger police detail at city sporting events after a series of fights broke out following a recent football game between Belleville and Dearborn High and acts of vandalism that were reported by merchants in Belleville's central business district.

Glass breakage and other forms of disruption by young groups that gather in the downtown area following the games have been reported by the local merchants.

A main gathering place, according to police reports, is the parking lot at Foodville which also is adjacent to Burgo's, a local hamburger establishment. Burgo's, it was reported, also plans to close at the same hour on Friday nights, a time when competitive sporting events are held in the city.

'Anne Frank' to play in third performance

Belleville High School's production of the drama, "The Diary of Anne Frank," will be shown in three performances this month instead of two as initially announced by the play's directors.

The all-school presentation will be held at 8 p.m. on Nov. 21-23 at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" gives an account of the changes wrought upon eight people hiding out from the Nazis for two years during World War II and reveals the thoughts and expressions of people living under extraordinary conditions.

This "moving commentary on war and its impact on human beings," won the 1956 Pulitzer Prize and a Critique Circle Award.

Rehearsals began on Oct. 7 and are still under way at the high school under the direction of Karen Sinkus, director with Louise Pitcher, assistant director and Glenn Curtis, technical director.

More than 20 other faculty members and many high school students are preparing themselves for the upcoming performances.

It was announced that holders of Gold Cards, alumni and senior citizens, may get their complimentary tickets at the Nov. 21 performance.

Consumer agency plans local visits

The Wayne County Consumer Protection Agency will begin sending investigators to numerous out-county community city halls, including Sumpter and Van Buren Townships, beginning this week to take complaints from local residents.

The service is offered as a convenience to consumers who cannot visit the agency's central Detroit office at 356 E. Congress, or who prefer not to file their complaint by mail or phone.

Because of limited staff, the investigator will be in a particular area only once a month, rotating each month among two or three neighboring city halls.

The investigator will gather pertinent information from consumers as they come in and, in most cases, will refer the problem to the legal staff in the agency's central office. If time permits and the case action is appropriate, an agency spokesman said, the investigator will try to solve the problems on the spot.

An investigator will be in Sumpter Township Hall and Van Buren Township Hall on the third Tuesday of each month to handle local complaints.

Consumers were reminded that they can contact the agency with problems any other time by visiting the office in downtown Detroit during weekday business hours, or by calling 224-2150.

The Wayne County Consumer Protection Agency is a new agency under the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. Funded by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the agency pursues complaints with mediation, civil and criminal litigation.

Players present 'Awake'

The Eastern Michigan University Theater will present "Awake and Sing," at 8 p.m. on Nov. 15-17 and Nov. 21-23 at the Quirk Auditorium.

The keynotes of the 1930's are struck with warm intimacy in Clifford Odets' compassionate story of a Jewish family during the depression.

Steelworkers donate check

Kidney patients in Western Wayne County found some new friends last Friday when District 29 of the United Steel Workers of America presented a $30,000 check to the Kidney Foundation of Michigan.

The presentation was made at a dinner at Great Lakes Steelworkers Credit Union, 4320 W. Jefferson in Ecorse.

The check represents proceeds from Charles G. Younglove Golf Day held by District 29 members in June this year. It will be used by the Kidney Foundation to purchase kidney machines.

THE ANNUAL golf outing is held to honor District 29 Director Charles G. Younglove of Trenton who originally thought of the idea of raising funds for the foundation. Younglove presented the $30,000 check to Executive Director David St. Clair at the dinner.

Golf Day Committee Chairman Harry E. Lester of Rockwood District 29 representative told golf day committee members attending the dinner:

Tonight's check brings the total amount raised for the Kidney Foundation by steel workers to $85,000.

"The $55,000 in proceeds from the District's four prior golf outings enabled the Kidney Foundation to purchase 17 kidney machines and one perfusion machine, a device used to keep donor kidneys functioning until transplant surgery can be scheduled," he said. "Tonight's check will purchase ten more kidney machines."

LOCAL RESIDENTS assisting Lester on this year's tournament committee included Ray T. Black of 6126 Carlson, Westland; Harold McMillan of 31755 Avondale, Westland; and Frank Wilson of 35079 Currier, Wayne.

Honored guests attending the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Romulus; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Grimm of New Boston; Grimm's nephew 11-year-old Mark Grimm of Southgate and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grimm; and Joe Perrow of Lincoln Park.

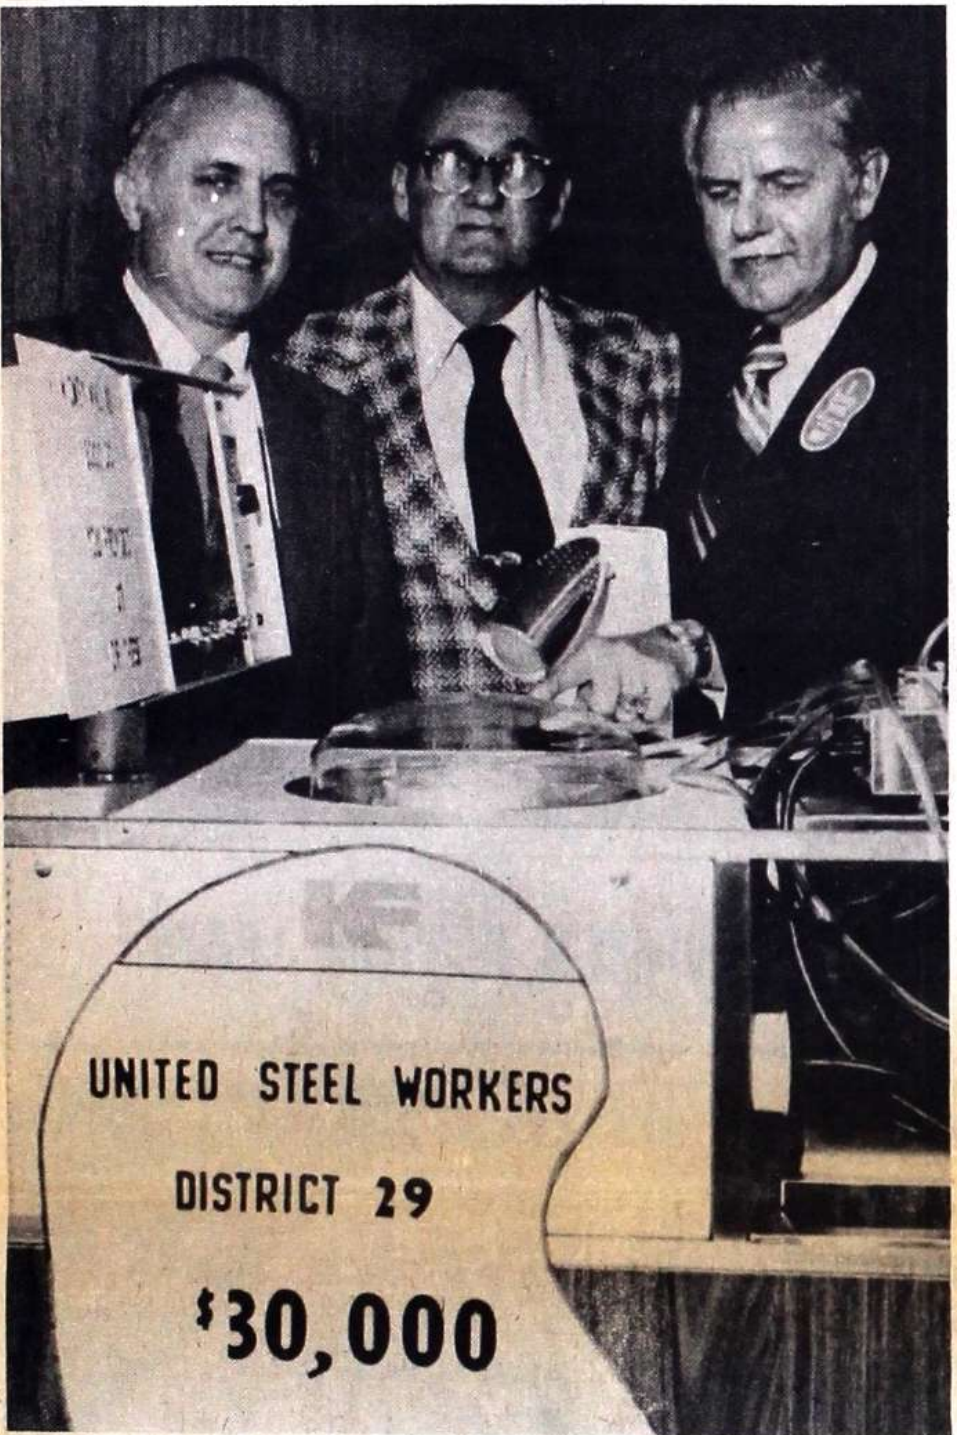

Johnson a father of four received a kidney transplant in 1967. In good health more than seven and one-half years later he's still on the job at Great Lakes Steel. Grimm, a father of two on leave from McClouth Steel has been a kidney patient since 1970. A kidney machine used three times a week for three hour intervals enables him to lead a relatively normal life.

GRIMM'S NEPHEW Mark was diagnosed as having congenital kidney disease when an infant. Nine years later Mark received a transplanted kidney from his mother.

Perrow, a retired McClouth Steel company employee who nearly died in 1964 was one of the first patients to use the then experimental kidney machine. Today 10 years and two transplants later he is doing well.

The Kidney Foundation of Michigan receives the bulk of its support from United Way drives throughout the state. Contributions such as the one received from Charles G. Younglove Golf Day enable the voluntary health agency to further expand its patient services program.

Services held for resident

One of Belleville's prominent Republican leaders for many years is dead.

Althea Woods "Tee" Amerman, who held various offices in the 15th GOP Congressional District died Sunday in Harper Hospital in Detroit at the age of 46.

Visitation services for Mrs. Amerman were held Monday evening at Roberts Bros. Funeral Home in Belleville. Private funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Acacia Park Cemetery in Birmingham.

Mrs. Amerman is survived by her father Dr. John Woods, a Detroit dentist; a son, Mark, an ensign in the U.S. Navy and his wife, Jan; and a daughter Linda, who is a student attending the University of Kansas.

Mrs. Amerman made an unsuccessful bid to unseat State Rep. Edward E. Malahak (D-Romulus) of the 38th Legislative District in the November election of 1966.

Township seniors invited to dinners

The Huron Township Recreation Fund is planning two dinner dates for all township senior citizens, and has scheduled the culinary events at 4 p.m. Nov. 14 and 4 p.m. Nov. 19.

The Nov. 14 trip to the Anchor Inn on Sibley Road in Riverview will be for senior citizens in New Boston, and the Nov. 19 dinner party has been designated for Waltz senior citizens.

Transportation must be provided by the residents themselves, and further information may be obtained by calling Roger Benner at 782-2441.

WINTER'S JUST AROUND THE CORNER.

SO IS NASSAU.

It's getting to be the time of year of icy sidewalks and drafty necks. And it's about time to start planning a nice warm escape. Like Nassau. Warm, foreign and only 2 1/2 hours away. What more could you want except a good deal in the price?

Air Jamaica has put together a few good deals into one booklet. For instance, only $193* can fly you there and back, give you 4 days and 3 nights in a hotel and a lot of special extras like complimentary tennis courts and a Sound and Light Show. If you want to stay longer, we have 8-day packages starting as low as $237*.

Nassau days are filled with swimming, water skiing, snorkeling. If you ever get off the beach, there's golf and tennis, shopping for duty-free treasures or snapping up pictures of old forts.

Nassau nights are filled with duck à l'orange, steel bands and calypso and an elegant gambling casino where, if you're lucky, you could win enough for a return trip.

Air Jamaica flights are filled with Reggae music and island warmth. You'll enjoy a refreshing Rum Bamboozle, free to all passengers, and the only fashion show in flight modelled by our Rare Tropical Birds.

For more information about what you'll get, send for our free booklet. But send soon because these packages are only available through December 15th. And that's just around the corner too.

On USDA proposal

Wool producers cast votes

A mail referendum is being held now through Nov. 15 to enable sheep producers in Western Wayne County and the rest of the state to voice their approval or disapproval of a new agreement between the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the American Sheep Producers Council (ASPC).

Ballots are being mailed to all known wool and lamb producers in Michigan to vote on the agreement which provides for the USDA to withhold a part of any wool payments that might be made to producers to finance advertising and sales promotion programs by ASPC for wool or lamb.

The withheld funds would also be used by ASPC to develop and disseminate information on product quality, production management and marketing improvement for wool and sheep.

Dorn Diehl, state executive director of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Office, explained that the new agreement is similar to one approved by producers in 1971. If approval is voted, payment deductions of up to 1½ cents per pound on shorn wool and 7½ cents a hundredweight on unshorn lambs would be made, the same as the maximum deduction rates for the 1966-72 period.

Diehl emphasized the neutrality of the USDA on the proposal being submitted to wool and lamb producers. "Our sole interest is in conducting a fair and impartial referendum," he said.

Anyone may vote who has owned sheep 6-months old or older for at least 30 consecutive days during 1973. Votes may be cast by individuals, corporations or partnerships. Any producer who is not already known to the county ASCS office is urged by Diehl to visit or call the local county ASCS office in order to receive a ballot and explanatory material.

Any eligible producer may vote in the referendum, without regard for race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Incumbents dominate polls while Huron millage loses

The incumbents generally had their day during last week's general election in Huron Township, but a local millage proposal aimed at bolstering the township's police department went down to defeat.

In the supervisor's race, incumbent Democrat George W. Moore defeated Republican challenger George Angel, 1,673-702. Township Clerk Mary Lou Carey, a Democrat, ran unopposed for re-election, garnering a vote total of 1,809.

Incumbent Township Treasurer Edward Helwig, a Republican, was upset in his bid to retain his post by Democrat Alfred J. Cady Jr., 1,369-953.

Vying for two seats on the Huron Township Board of Trustees were incumbent Democrat Harvey Carey, incumbent Republican Roy C. Raker and Democrat Richard F. Sullivan. Carey and Sullivan won with 1,400 and 1,585 votes respectively, and Raker lost with 1,038 votes.

Filling the four constable positions in Huron Township will be Democrat DeVere Willard with 1,466 votes, and Republicans Joseph E. Carney, 949; Donald R. Sands, 947; and Russell J. Wilson, 969.

A proposal aimed at increasing the township property tax by one-half mill for five years beginning December 1975, to be used in expanding the community's existing police force, was turned down by the voters, 1,265-971.

Of the township's 4,041 registered voters, a total of 2,543 turned out to cast their ballots in the Nov. 5 election.

Peacock to head branch

Managers of two branch offices of the Security Bank and Trust Co., Southgate, have been appointed by Lowell L. Peacock, president of Security Bank and Trust Co. and its parent company, Security Bancorp, Inc.

Paul Laszlo of Allen Park was named manager of the Dix-St. Johns office while Emil Meissner of Taylor was named manager of the Fort-O'Connor office.

Laszlo, who holds a bachelor of science degree in management, joined the firm in August 1968. He is a member of the Lincoln Park Jaycees and a former officer of that organization. He and his wife, Ginger, are the parents of two sons.

Meissner joined the company in 1966 after nine years of credit lending.

He has been very active in the bank's school and adult education program. He and his wife, Margie, are the parents of four children.

Nursery accepts sign ups

Registrations are still being taken for the Western Wayne County 'Y' Womens Club Pre-School Nursery Program held each Monday and Wednesday in the clubhouse of Oakbrooke Subdivision in Romulus.

As yet, there are 25 children involved in the program which meets from 1-3 p.m. A class for the mothers of the youngsters, dealing with arts and craft and parent effectiveness training, is conducted during the same times, also at Oakbrooke.

For registration details, call 941-4855.

Save money this winter.

Cut your heating costs up to 17% with our official insulation program.

Last fall, at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated introduced a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and cut heating costs up to 17%.

How successful has the program been? Well, in the past 10 months, more than 37,700 homeowners have installed ceiling insulation and, as a result, over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas per year is being conserved. That's enough to heat over 6,500 additional homes this winter. And, that's why we're continuing our insulation program again this fall. Because now is the time to insulate and save.

The heart of our program is simply this: Install six inches of ceiling insulation in your home. It's a quick, easy and inexpensive project that most homeowners can accomplish by themselves for about $100.

How can you get the job done? First, you can do it yourself, and we'll gladly provide a free handbook that tells you how. Secondly, you can have it done by an insulation contractor and, if you wish, we will provide you with a list of qualified firms. Or, third, we can have the job done for you through one of our participating subcontractors. The cost is often under $200 for homes with less than 1,000 square feet of ceiling area.

If you want the job done through one of our participating subcontractors, we have a payment plan to suit every budget. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

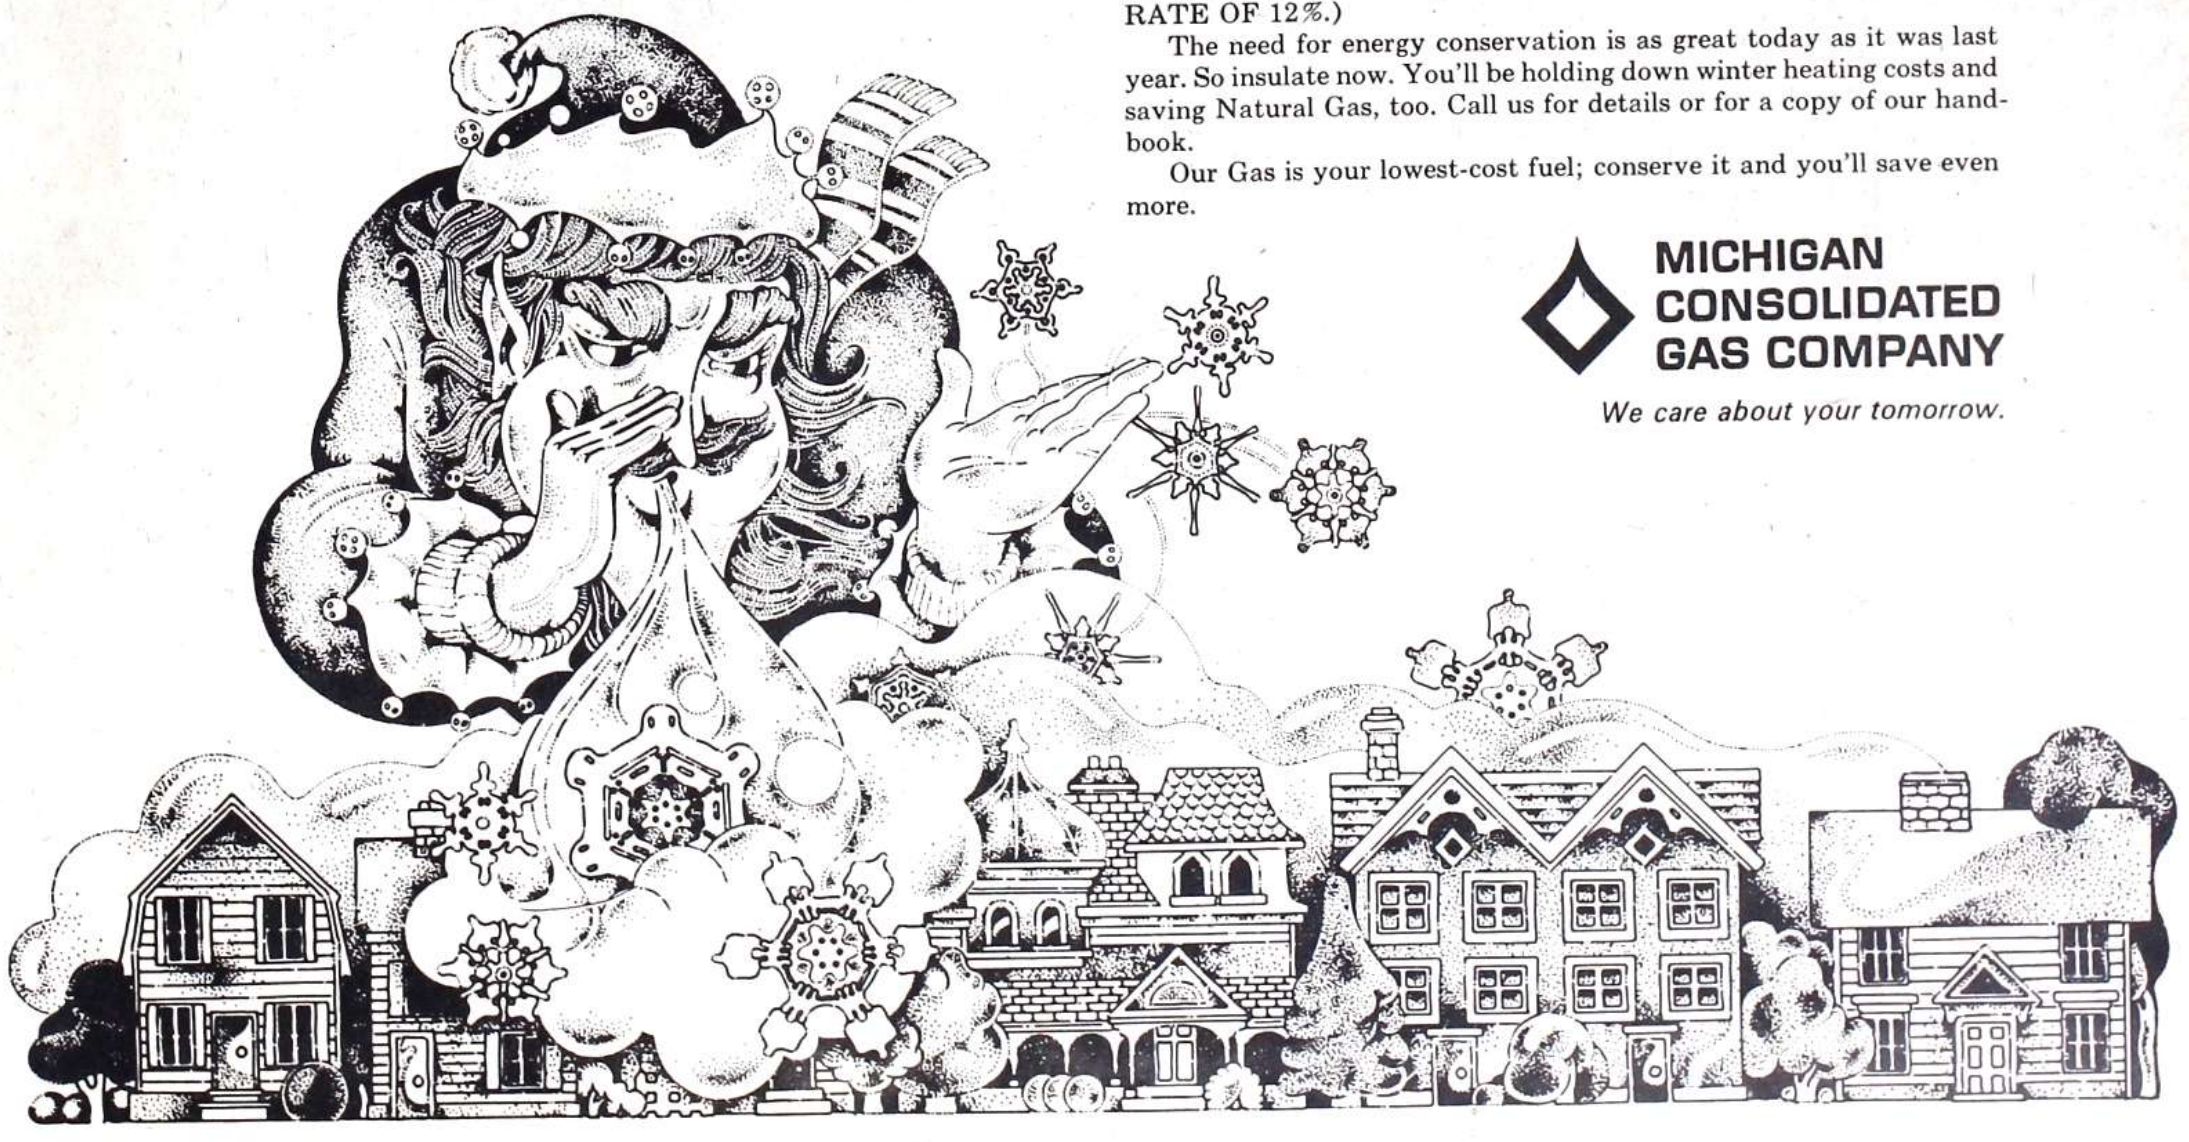

The need for energy conservation is as great today as it was last year. So insulate now. You'll be holding down winter heating costs and saving Natural Gas, too. Call us for details or for a copy of our handbook.

Our Gas is your lowest-cost fuel; conserve it and you'll save even more.

VB planners OK site plan request

A site plan for the construction of the proposed Kirkridge Park Subdivision in Van Buren Township has received the approval of the Van Buren Township Planning Commission.

The planning commission's recommended approval is subject to Highland Construction Co., which filed the site plan approval request meeting certain conditions laid down by the commission.

The firm's site plan approval hinges on its providing a $6 million bond pursuant to the township's building ordinance, approval by the engineering department of the township, submission of a copy of articles of incorporation (subdivision) and completion of the clubhouse before 130 dwelling units are occupied.

The new subdivision, located on Ecorse Road, was initially started about three years and construction was stopped after three residential units had been built, the commission was told.

Company representatives also told the commission the firm now wishes to start building the rest of the project.

In other matters, the planning commission approved an amended site plan submitted by Fred Clanigan of the National Bank of Detroit for a bank branch on Ecorse Road in Van Buren Township.

The amended site plan was filed by the bank because of a change in the exits at the proposed new bank branch.

Skate parties to run

Due to the reported success of the year's first roller skating party sponsored by Elwell Elementary School's Junior Girl Scout Troop 589, the "fun-filled" event will be held once each month during the winter, Troop Leader Georgianna Warren said.

The skating party held at the Sumpter Roller Rink attracted 60 girl scouts including members from the cadette troop at South Junior High School, Brownie troop at Elwell School and the Junior Girl Scout troop at Sumpter Elementary School.

Poster prizes given

Three young Romulus elementary students have been selected as top winners in their respective grades in the Jaycee Fire Prevention Week Poster Contest.

The poster contest involved all elementary students in Romulus schools.

The winners of a $25 U.S. Savings Bond were two students at Cory Elementary School, 35200 Smith St., and one attending Mt. Pleasant Elementary School 39000 Superior St.

The Cory School students are Laura Nickels, 10, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Nickels of 34943 Julie St., Romulus, who won the fifth grade division honors; and Jon Madish Jr., 9, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nadish Sr., of 9369 Berry St., Romulus.

The Mt. Pleasant School winner is Janice Coleman, 11, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman of 34471 California Ave., Romulus. She won the sixth grade division honors.

Laura entered a Smokey the Bear poster in water color and chalk. Jon used a "magic marker" to depict the results of lighting a match before and after it is lit.

The Romulus Jaycees captured high chapter honors at last week's fall meeting of Michigan's 300 Jaycee chapters.

Romulus placed third in chapter management, took fourth in its population division which includes 32 cities, and was listed 27th best overall chapter of the 300.

The Belleville Jaycees placed ninth in the same population division category. The classification analyzes a chapter's projects, programs and membership.

Huron schools begin teacher conferences

Parent-teacher conferences in the Huron School District will begin today, and parents of students in grades six through 12 will be given an advance opportunity to see their children's grades for the first marking period.

Conferences are scheduled in all grades today, tomorrow and Friday. Parents of elementary school students are required to make advance appointments with teachers, but teachers in the second ary level will be on hand for conferences throughout each afternoon and no appointments are necessary.

Secondary school teachers will be available for appointments from noon to 3:30 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. today, and from noon to 3:30 p.m. tomorrow, according to Philip Dalley, administrative assistant for the district.

Dalley added that teachers handling grades six through 12 will make student grades available to parents during conferences, and report cards for all students will be mailed out on Nov. 20.

During the conference days, sixth through 12th grade students will be dismissed at 11 a.m. and all students in kindergarten through the fifth grade will be out at 11:45 a.m., Dalley said.

The district has, in the past, held two parent-teacher conference sessions during each school year, one in spring and one in fall.

Students choose math as noontime diversion

If you were in the seventh or eighth grade would you choose a math activity, just for fun? Or would you choose to go to the gymnasium, play chess, checkers, basketball, watch movies or knit?

Many students attending South Junior High School in Belleville are choosing math.

During the noon hour, students at the school have a selection of many different activities from which to choose. A new activity period — math lab — was added to the noon hour program last year and is being continued this fall.

The math lab has been coordinated by Janet Coole and Wendy Squelch. The activity is to make fun for students.

During the lab period, students use their mathematical skills to solve problems in the form of games and puzzles, such as scrabble, concentration games, puzzles, tic-tac-toe, riddles and others.

The projects are divided into several levels of difficulty, ranging from easy to hard so that students with varying mathematical skills will find the activity interesting, challenging and fun.

Many of the games and projects used have been made by the math teachers with assistance from the school shop and science staff. Plans now are in progress to use the math lab in some classes.

Local student to join society

A Belleville resident was one of 39 Albion College students recently recognized at an honors banquet as part of the college's Parents Day program after qualifying for membership in the freshman scholastic honorary society, Alpha Lambda Delta.

Claire M. Steinman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steinman of 14130 Haggerty Rd., was among those given the special recognition.

To qualify for membership in the society, a freshman woman must have received a 3.5 grade average at the end of her first semester or have an accumulative 3.5 at the end of her freshman year.

The kitchen might be called the command post and nerve center of the house, since it generates so much of the household activity. People like to congregate there for the nostalgia and informality in the air. Today's kitchen may be the most expensive room in the house because it contains most of the functional equipment. The trend is definitely toward the open kitchen, often encompassing the family room. Space once assigned to more formal areas is being allocated to the casual life.

Window-painting contest raises artistic spirits

If during the recent Halloween week you noticed that the City of Belleville seemed to be inhabited by ghosts and goblins, relax. They are gone at least until next year.

The Belleville Area Improvement Association (BAIA) will then hold its second annual Halloween store window painting contest.

The artists responsible for bringing the association-sponsored Halloween "spirit" into Belleville store windows were students from the art classes of Marcia Kalb at Belleville High School and from Gwen Buege's art class at South Junior High School.

THE ASPIRING artists painted 13 different store windows at the following business establishments: Belvil Standard Service, Bob's Barber Shop, Burgo's Restaurant, Dancer's Department Store, Douglas Carpet, D.H. Raymond-Smith Insurance, Ellward-Stirling-Detlor Insurance, Gambles Department Store, Hamilton Hardware Store, Hoots Boots, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Roberts Furniture Store and Town & Country Restaurant.

Most of the young artists walked from school, painted their window displays, packed up their supplies and marched back to school during their art class.

Others used up half a school day to complete their "masterpiece." Even on Saturday some of the artists were at work. Each group of artists also was responsible for clean-up duty.

Ballots to determine the winners of the Halloween

Store window painting contest were distributed to area merchants. On Nov. 5 the results of the contest were selected by the judges.

FIRST PLACE honors and prize -- a $15 check -- went to the artists who painted the Gamble's Department Store window. They are Chris Liedel, Barb Kasproy, Bob Lucius, Sara Robson, Tim McClellan and Janna Harris.

Second place honors and a $5 prize went to the students of Mrs. Kalb's second hour art class which painted the window at Burgo's Restaurant.

Third place honors and a $10 prize went to the following students from Mrs. Buege's class: Doris Taylor, Mark Lauth, Matt Gaydos, Janet McMillan, Dine Leach, Linda Harris, Doug Watson, Cheryl Czajkowski, Jane Salutz and Garwin Nutt.

"The response was overwhelming and enthusiastic," said Shirley Erb, president of the Belleville Area Improvement Association. "Due to the request of many painters and store owners, the BAIA would like to extend an invitation to anyone or group who is interested in reserving a store window to paint Christmas scenes," she added.

Class visits fiesta

Students attending the fourth and fifth grade classes at West Willow Elementary School and their parents recently celebrated a Mexican fiesta. The school is located in the Van Buren Public School District.

A dinner of chili, Mexican corn, tacos, corn chips, hot peppers and grape drink began the festivities followed by a greeting to the parents by the class co-hosts, Richard Sutton and Jerry Gysin.

Reports on Mexico were given by Gary Greer, Ray Levos, Jeff Carr, Terri Powell, John Willis, Brian Bennett, Bill Martin and Tim Garbo.

A song and skit titled "Don Gato," prepared by music instructor Sue Stahl featured Tina Foster and Jeff Carr. A Mexican hat dance also was demonstrated by the students, and the parents in attendance participated.

The breaking of a "pinata" — (a hanging ball filled with treats) — prepared by students Brenda Hardy, Pam Funk and Kim McCreary under the direction of art teacher Linda Hanson, was enjoyed by all.

The Mexican fiesta ended with a movie titled, "The story of Pablo a Mexican Boy," shown by March Armstrong.

Taxman gets fine of $500

A self-employed Romulus tax return preparer has been sentenced to three years probation and fined $500 for willfully aiding and assisting in the preparation of false income tax returns of clients.

The man is James McCain, 40, of 6094 Second St.

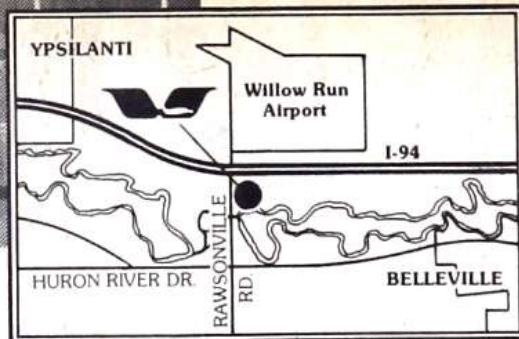

U.S. District Court Judge Charles W. Joiner attached two special conditions to McCain's probation. He ordered him to get out of the business of preparing tax returns, and to pay the $500 fine within one year.

U.S. Attorney Ralph B. Guy Jr. said McCain pleaded guilty Sept. 3 to one count of a 9-count indictment. All counts charged him with assisting the preparation of false returns.

The count to which McCain pleaded guilty charged that he entered deductions for gasoline tax, interest expense, and union dues on a client's 1971 return. According to the indictment, the client-taxpayer did not own a car, did not incur interest expenses and did not belong to a union.

Guy said the remaining counts of the indictment were dismissed at the time of sentencing.

ART KITZE

TOBY THEODORE

East senior leads coveted team

Kitze is No. 1 runner in area

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Displaying the correct mixture of running endurance and speed, Art Kitze outran a record field of challengers on a rain-dampened Westland John Glenn three-mile course to prove he's the top cross country runner in the area this year.

The Garden City East High senior, who recently finished 10th in the state, was clocked in the winning time of 15:47 at the ninth annual Daily Eagle Associated Newspapers' high school cross country meet.

KITZE ENDED an outstanding career as a member of Coach Ron Clifton's team. He won the Northwest Suburban Conference title this year and placed seventh in the regional which qualified him for the Class A state finals.

Also honored on this year's mythical team are: Toby Theodore (Westland John Glenn), Doug Sweazey (Garden City East), Dale Brown (Cherry Hill), Craig

Gully (Churchill), Todd Wint (Churchill), Rich Nowak (Wayne Memorial), Keith Moore (Wayne Memorial), Chuck Ronan (Livonia Franklin) and Dean Barill (Cherry Hill).

"Kitze is not only an outstanding athlete but an excellent student as well," said Clifton, "it has been a pleasure working with this fine young man."

KITZE has been a member of the Panther cross country team for the past three years. His teammate, Sweazey, didn't run cross country as a sophomore but proved to be a tremendous asset to the team as a junior.

Doug just missed qualifying for the state finals when he finished 11th in the regionals.

THEODORE also is a two-year varsity runner, having transferred to Glenn as a sophomore from Dearborn Divine Child. The 17-year-old senior has qualified for the state two consecutive years and finished fifth in the regionals while runnerup in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The 5-foot-10, 132-pound athlete helped Coach Jerry Szukaitis' Rockets capture a share of the Northwest Suburban championship. The second half of the title belongs to Livonia Franklin, the only team to beat the Westlanders in dual meet competition this year.

BROWN is one of three juniors making their inaugural appearances on the coveted team. He was instrumental in Cherry Hill's first "perfect season." The Spartans garnered a 10-0 dual meet and a 7-0 Tri-River record this season.

"Dale ran well, very well for us this year," said Joe Grasley, who also is being honored as the Coach of the Year. "I feel with another year of experience Dale is going to emerge as one of the top runners in the state."

Brown was the only member of the Spartan team to advance to the state after finishing ninth in the regional.

Barill, a co-captain of the Spartans, has been running varsity competition for four years and has been a member of the two teams that have won league championships.

He had his problems, though in the regionals and didn't survive the test. He bounced back to win the individual title in the Tri-River.

"Anyone who has put in the mileage Dean has, you have to have a great deal of respect for," said Grasley.

GULLY has had phenomenal success as a member of Coach Dave Westover's squad. Each of his three years he has been on a championship team, the Chargers having won the Western Six title now five consecutive times.

Sick during the regionals, Craig came back to capture the league's top honor. He also has been a member of the 11-league team three straight years.

"He's an all-around good kid and, though I know it's impossible, I would like to have him back with us next year."

WINT is also "batting 2-for-2" as he also has been a member of two Churchill championship teams. The 16-year-old junior placed third in the league which helped him retain all-conference recognition. He just missed qualifying for the state.

"Because of an injury, Todd wasn't able to practice with us until Aug. 20," related Westover, "and he's just rounding into shape."

Wayne, which monopolized the Great Lakes 8 Conference championship in the league's two years of existence, is represented by Nowak and Moore on this year's team.

NOWAK is the last of three brothers who over the years have been among the top runners in the area and state. All-league for three years, Nowak sparked Coach Doug Garrett's Zebras to a second place finish in the regionals at Ann Arbor, thereby, qualifying the team for the state finals.

"He's a dedicated runner," said Garrett. While there was a Nowak on our team, we never lost a dual meet in the league."

MOORE qualified for the state finals two straight years and was the leader of the Zebra pack this season.

"Not only is Keith an excellent athlete, he is a good student as well," Garrett added.

Wayne had an over-all 12-1 record, captured the Western Wayne Invitational Section I, (Glenn has the other part) and also placed second in the regional.

4 Tigers set swim records

Four members of the Belleville Tiger Swim Club posted personal and team bests in an AAU Meet hosted by the Grosse Pointe Swim Club last Saturday.

The four, Russ Beance, Phil Berger, Howard Renton and Joey Thomas combined in a 200-yard medley relay that was clocked in a club record time of 2:03.5.

However, that time was good enough for a sixth place over-all finish for the 13-14 boys age group.

INDIVIDUALLY, Beance and Renton both turned in best times in the 100-yard backstroke and 200-yard individual medley.

Russ touched in at 1:07.2 and 2:30.2, while Howard churned a 1:10.2 and a 2:32.8, respectively. Beance's times set Tiger and age group records.

Meanwhile, Thomas clocked a personal best of 2:13.1 in the 200-yard freestyle but didn't place.

On the weekend of Nov. 23, the Belleville Tiger Swim Club will again represent the Belleville area in AAU competition, sponsored by the Clarenceville and Livonia Spartan Swim Clubs.

Cherry Hill's Grasley picked Coach of Year

This was definitely Joe Grasley's year.

The 31-year-old Cherry Hill cross country coach posted a 10-0 over-all and a 7-0 Tri-River Conference record en route to the coveted "perfect season."

"I really didn't do anything different this year than I have in the past," said Grasley who is being honored as The Daily Eagle-Associated Newspapers' Coach of the Year. "Whatever success our team had, has to go to the kids."

GRASLEY has been at the helm of the Spartan cross country machine for nine years and during that time he has managed to stay in the thick of the conference title race, however, it wasn't until a year ago that Cherry Hill got a slice of the crown.

This year, undefeated in dual meet competition, the Spartans also won their first league meet, claiming the championship outright.

JOE GRASLEY

What has been the difference?

"Well, this team is the most cohesive team I have ever coached," related Grasley, "the kids have a togetherness about them and they really don't want to disappoint one another, so they try harder when they're out there."

From here & there

By TOM MOORADIAN

While most of the attention over the weekend was focused on the Michigan State University and Ohio State football controversy, a couple of local athletes sneaked into the news as key performers on the University of Michigan's cross country team.

The Wolverines captured the Big 10 championship and ex-Bellefonte High and All-Area runner, Jon Cross, as well as last year's Tri-River Conference champ, Dearborn Heights Riverside's Bill Donakowski came up sixth and 14th place efforts, respectively, to figure in Michigan's 42 points.

Michigan out-distanced title-favorite, Wisconsin by 13 points to claim its first cross country title in nearly 20 years. The top four also included Illinois (75) and Michigan State University (85).

JON, A JUNIOR who is in pre-med, was clocked in 31:00.2 to finish fifth among the Wolverine runners. Donakowski was clocked in 30:12.6 over the six-mile course.

Illinois' Greg Virgn, who covered the Michigan Golf Course in a fast 29:11.4, was the individual winner. He beat Michigan's Great Meyer to the finish line. Meyer was timed in 29:45.8.

"Jon's 14th place finish was an important one," said Wolverine coach Ron Warhurst who has turned Michigan's cross country program into a winning one. "It's doubtful that we would have won it without his performance."

Other Michigan runners included Mike McGuire who finished eighth in 30:21.8, Keith Brown, who was 12th in 30:43.6.

I DOUBT if there is a sports fan in Michigan who hasn't heard of MSU's 16-13 upset of top-ranked Ohio State. And I repeated it here because it sounds so good.

That upset leads to a lot of speculation. For example, if undefeated Michigan should lose to Ohio State, would history repeat itself?

Would the Big 10 athletic directors again cast their ballots to see which team - Michigan or Ohio State would go to the Rose Bowl?

Would the Big 10 athletic directors again cast their ballots to see which team - Michigan or Ohio State would go to the Rose Bowl?

Would MSU vote for Ohio State again?

Of course Iowa could solve the problem this week by beating Woody Hayes' minions and the Wolverines then could wrap it up before they make their trip to Columbus on Nov. 23 by whipping Purdue in Ann Arbor this Saturday.

These final two weeks are going to be very interesting, folks.

SPEAKING OF CONTROVERSIES have you ever glanced at the teams stacked in Region III of the Class A Michigan High School football playoffs?

There are four undefeated teams in that regional and only one in the remaining three.

IF THERE WERE a playoff this season which team would you pick to represent that region - Livonia Franklin, the undefeated Northwest Suburban Conference champ; Plymouth Salem, the undefeated Suburban 4 Conference champ Birmingham Brother Rice, the undefeated First Division, Catholic League champ or Detroit Redford, the Detroit Public League champ?

I'm sort of happy that the MHSAA decided to make this year's playoffs a "paper playoff" because there would be a lot of rate fans, for obvious reasons, if one of these teams didn't get an opportunity to play for the state championship.

Let's wind it up with this note:

DEAR MR. MOORADIAN

I would like to thank you for the coverage you provided the Western Suburban Little League Football, namely, the Cougars.

And I am happy that you finally resolved the "name usage" controversy.

Again, thank you.

Dianna McDaniel

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A Sports Meridian column last month settled the issue of using little league gridders' names in stories about the league. In the past the league prohibited their usage and had asked only scores be published.)

Curtains fall on '74 campaign

Area gridders bow out losers

The end was bitter for Belleville, Romulus and New Boston Huron football teams.

All were losers in their season's finales.

Belleville held a highly-touted Ypsilanti to a 7-7 halftime tie before losing a 27-7 decision to the visiting Braves, while Detroit Austin crushed Romulus 26-6 and Woodhaven shutout Huron 28-0.

"IT'S BEEN a frustrating season for us," said Belleville coach Keith Emerson whose Tigers wrapped the season with a 2-7 over-all record. "What else can one say?"

Belleville had its chances to upset their visitors who found it difficult to penetrate the Tiger defense most of the first half.

In fact, it was Belleville which made the first overtures for a touchdown. Led by quarterback Mark Verrot, the Tigers marched from their own 38 yard line to the Braves' 21 before the drive fizzled because of a fumble.

Ypsi drew first blood and scored early in the second quarter when quarterback Ken Robinson capped a short 30-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown. Marcus Taylor kicked the extra point.

Belleville then put on its best drive of the season as Verrot guided the Tigers 78-yards for a touchdown. The last six yards were obtained on a pass completion by the Tiger QB to Mike Stanley.

Russ Rutherford booted the extra point to knot the score at 7-all.

YPSILANTI dominated the second half. The Braves scored in their first series after the kickoff marching from their own 27-yard line to the Tiger 25 where Robinson hooked up with Dave Kewisser for the TD.

Robinson later tossed TD passes to Mark Denise, which covered 11-yards then hit Kewisser in the fourth quarter with a 20-yarder to seal the victory.

Perry Dingman ended his prep grid career by rushing for 38 yards on 12 tries while Verrot hit on eight of 24 passes for 65 yards.

Roy Rutherford, a tackle, and lineba kers Dan Dapsi and Dan Bragg were Belleville's bright spots on defense.

HURON became the first team in recent years to be blanked nine consecutive times. The Chiefs also failed to score a touchdown as Woodhaven put 22 points on the board in the first quarter on rout to the 28-0 shellacking.

"We couldn't block them," said Huron Coach Jim Rossow, commenting on the game. "Woodhaven blitzed us an awful lot and we couldn't pick them up."

The Chiefs nearly broke the touchdown drought as they got to the four yard line in the third quarter before a fumble ended the threat.

BILL GROVER caused a Woodhaven fumble, scooped up by Rick Elkins who got back to the Woodhaven 20-yard line before he was tackled. Quarterback Craig Beattie connected on a nine-yard pass to Larry Kittle for a first down play that left the Chiefs four-yards shy, but then a miscue erased the scoring possibility.

"It's been a very, very disappointing season," said Rossow, "and the only consolation is that the bulk of the players will be back next year."

"We had only four senior starters on this team, so we have a nucleus for next year's squad," Rossow added.

Romulus' Tom Baldwin also used the word, "disappointing" to describe his first season as the Eagles' head coach. The loss to Austin dipped Romulus' record to 2-7 on the year.

AUSTIN was never seriously threatened as the Detroiters carried a 20-0 lead into the final 12 minutes of the season. The Eagles averted the shutout when junior quarterback Michael Morrison teamed up with sophomore split end Allen Lewis on a 70-yard pass-run touchdown play.

Romulus only other threat came early in the first quarter when a Morrison to Lewis pass moved the Eagles to the Austin 25 and, after three unsuccessful plays, the hosts called on Bob Blundell for a field goal.

Blundell's attempt missed the target.

BALDWIN had called up several reserves for this game and he was impressed by their performances. The Eagles have underclassmen in the fullback slot in Steve Hutchinson, wingback Jeff Frazee and tailback Eric Moore.

Since Morrison is also a junior, Romulus will have a complete backfield ready for next season.

Romulus crushes Ecorse

Panthers are perfect

The Romulus Panthers scored three times in their first four attempts to leap to a 21-0 lead en route to a 54-0 victory over their rivals.

Ecorse should have held up its hands and surrendered to Romulus' eighth grade football team after the fourth play from scrimmage.

The victory - Romulus' fifth - brought the season to an end and clinched for the Panthers their third undefeated football campaign.

"WE HAVE had some outstanding players around here, but these kids rank with the best," said Thomas. "It's fantastic. Do you realize that we have outscored our rivals 193-8 and the one TD they scored on us was a fluke?"

Richard Lewis provided the Panthers with three touchdowns as he sprinted 25, 40 yards into the end zone and also snared a pass from quarterback Kelly Summerfield for his third TD of the game.

Lewis' initial touchdown was set up on Don Carter's 50-yard punt return.

Lewis carried the ball a mere five times but rolled up a fantastic 91 yards.

The Panthers also scored on a 62 yard punt return by Stuart Block, a three-yard plunge by Don Carter and Mike Johnson's 42-yard punt return.

Darryl Lewis - Rich's "little brother" scampered around end for a 60-yard TD.

Fred Block ran two extra points into the end zone and Darryl Lewis had one while the linemen - Gary Gemmell, Randy Halvin and Dave Long also got into the extra point scoring act. Each scored once.

The Panthers didn't need to show much against the Red Raiders. Romulus ran off 18 offensive plays.

"These boys deserve all the credit in the world for the way they played," said the Panther coach, "they're just great as players and as young men."

ARTICLE 4

Section 400.0 and subsequent sections of the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE OF 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials accumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:

Section 414.1 ONE- AND TWO-FAMILY DWELLINGS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 414.1 ONE- AND TWO-FAMILY DWELLINGS: Private garages, not over five hundred (500) square feet, located beneath a one- or two-family dwelling shall have walls, partitions, floors and ceilings separating the garage space from the dwelling constructed of not less than three-quarter (¾) hour fire resistance, with the sills of all door openings between them raised not less than four (4) inches above the garage floor. The door opening protectives shall be three-quarter (¾) hour fire doors complying with Article 9, or garages so located may be over five hundred (500) square feet, but not more than eight hundred (800) square feet if of Type-1 construction.

Section 414.12 MOTELS AND MULTI-FAMILY DWELLINGS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 414.12 MOTELS AND MULTI-FAMILY DWELLINGS: Private garages located beneath or attached to motels and multi-family dwellings shall be of Type-1 construction, and shall have door sills to comply with Section 414.11 and Type "A" fire doors.

Section 414.3 SEPARATION BY BREEZEWAY: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 414.3 SEPARATION BY BREEZEWAY: Private garages not over five hundred (500) square feet attached to one- and two-family dwellings shall be protected as required in Section 414.11, and garages separated from a residence by a breezeway less than six (6) feet in length must also comply with Section 414.11, but the junction of the garage and any breezeway shall be firestopped to comply with Section 876.0. Attached garages may be up to eight hundred (800) square feet if of Type 3-B construction for use group (L-3).

Section 424.2 LANES AND PARKING SPACES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 424.2 LANES AND PARKING SPACES: Three hundred (300) square feet of area shall be required for each parking space including access lanes, and the parking space shall be not less than nine and one-half (9½) feet by twenty (20) feet striped area for each vehicle. Chock blocks or approved stops shall be provided on perimeter of lot.

Section 424.5 SURFACE AND DRAINAGE: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 424.5 SURFACE AND DRAINAGE: Parking lots shall be paved with bituminous asphalt or concrete and shall be maintained to prevent drainage onto adjoining property or the sidewalk.

Section 425.12 TEMPORARY LOCATION: Said section, as the same appears in the BOCA Code, is hereby repealed.

Section 425.13 APPROVED PARK LOCATIONS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.13 APPROVED PARK LOCATIONS: Travel trailers may be occupied for more than forty-eight (48) hours when parked in an approved and licensed trailer or mobile homes park; but no individual unit shall be continuously occupied in any location for a period of more than sixty (60) days within the period of one (1) year from the date it was first brought into the community. When a travel trailer is occupied for more than twenty-four (24) hours in an approved and licensed trailer or mobile homes park, it shall be properly connected to the utility services. Section 425.21 MINIMUM AREAS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained: Section 425.21 MINIMUM AREAS: Mobile home units shall have a minimum floor area, exclusive of kitchen, bath and closet areas, of two hundred fifty (250) square feet when occupied by not more than two (2) persons, with an additional one hundred (100) square feet per person when occupied by more than two (2) persons. No individual room exclusive of kitchen, bath or utility room, shall have an area less than eighty (80) square feet nor be less than seven (7) feet six (6) inches in minimum dimension.

The minimum height of habitable spaces in mobile homes shall be not less than seven (7) feet six (6) inches.

Section 425.31 ENCLOSURES OF PARKS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.31 ENCLOSURES OF PARKS: Transient and mobile homes parks shall be enclosed with an approved fence not less than four (4) feet or more than six (6) feet in height and with no openings to adjoining property other than the required entrances and exits to streets or public spaces.

Section 425.33 STREETS AND WALKWAYS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.33 STREETS AND WALKWAYS: Streets and driveways shall be provided within the park area to afford easy access to all parking spaces. They shall be paved with concrete or bituminous asphalt, and shall provide ready means of entrance and exit to the street in an approved manner. The minimum width of streets providing for two-way traffic shall be thirty-six (36) feet when parking of cars is allowed on both sides and twenty-two (22) feet where parking is not allowed. Satisfactory means of drainage shall be provided with all streets and lanes draining into catch basins properly connected to the sewer system in accordance with applicable requirements for such facilities. Walkways shall be provided as necessary to all accessory buildings and service facilities of the park. Walks shall have a nonslip impervious surface and shall comply with applicable requirements for public sidewalks. Streets and walkways shall be illuminated as required for streets.

Section 425.34 SERVICE BUILDINGS: and the language subsequently contained in this section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained: Section 425.34 SERVICE BUILDINGS: Office buildings and structures housing sanitary, service or similar equipment, shall be constructed to meet the applicable requirements of the Basic Code. Motor fuel service stations shall be located adjacent to a public street and shall be not less than one hundred (100) feet from spaces for parking of travel trailers or mobile homes or any building. Mobile units, as defined in the Basic Code, may not be used for accessory uses in connection with any park except upon special permission in writing from the building official. Such units may be mounted on permanent foundations for accessory uses when specifically permitted by the special permit.

Section 425.35 ANCHORAGE AND TIE-DOWN: and the language subsequently contained in this section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.35 ANCHORAGE AND TIE-DOWN: Every parking space for mobile homes shall be provided with devices for anchoring the unit to prevent overturning or uplift. Where concrete platforms are provided for the parking of the units, anchorage may be by eyelets imbedded in the concrete with adequate anchor plates or hooks; or other suitable means. The anchorage shall be adequate to withstand wind forces and uplift as required in Article 7 for buildings and structures, based upon the size and weight of the units.

Section 425.35 SEWER SYSTEM AND SANITARY FACILITIES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.37 SEWER SYSTEM AND SANITARY FACILITIES: Faucets for community use shall be installed in accessible locations in a manner to be safe and sanitary. Sanitary facilities consisting of water closets, urinals, showers or baths, shall be provided for community use in accordance with the fixture requirements of the Plumbing Code. In addition, not less than one (1) laundry tub and one (1) slop sink shall be installed for each ten (10) travel trailers and mobile home units. Such facilities shall be located so as to be accessible to all units in the park. Each space for a travel trailer or mobile home shall be provided with a sewer outlet not less than four (4) inches in diameter connected to the main sewer system and properly trapped to receive waste from the fixtures in the mobile unit. The main sewer system shall be connected to the public sewer system or to other approved disposal plant. Provisions shall be made for the receipt, collection and disposal of all garbage and rubbish from each mobile unit in accordance with the City requirements. Garbage and waste receptacles shall be kept clean and in sanitary condition.

Section 425.38 ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT AND SYSTEMS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.38 ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT AND SYSTEMS: The main electric service to the park shall be of adequate capacity to serve the maximum connected load. Main service, fusing, switching and distribution shall comply with the applicable requirements of the electrical code and shall be installed and maintained in accordance with applicable laws and ordinances governing such systems. Each travel trailer or mobile home space shall be provided with electric service having a grounded type supply receptacle with appropriate fuse or circuit breakers. The minimum service for each mobile home unit shall be 110-125-220-225 volt, 100 ampere. The minimum service for a travel trailer shall be 115 volt AC 30 ampere. Service shall be mounted in an approved manner adjacent to each mobile unit space in accordance with the electrical code.

Section 425.4 TRAVEL TRAILER PARKS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.4 TRAVEL TRAILER PARKS: Trailer parks intended for parking of travel trailers shall comply with the applicable requirements of Section 425.3 and the requirements of the following subsections:

Section 425.42 AREA OF TRAILER SPACES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.42 AREA OF TRAILER SPACES: Based upon the gross area of the trailer park the number of individual unit spaces shall be not more than fifteen (15) per acre. The minimum area of any space for a travel trailer shall be not less than twelve hundred (1200) square feet with no dimension less than thirty (30) feet. No such space shall be located less than twenty (20) feet from the street lot lines and alley lines and not less than twenty (20) feet from interior lot lines. Travel trailers shall be so located on each space so that there will not be less than twenty (20) feet to any other trailer or building within the park. Section 425.51 AREA OF MOBILE HOME SPACES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.51 AREA OF MOBILE HOME SPACES: Based upon the gross area of the park the number of individual unit spaces shall be not more than seven (7) per acre. The minimum area of any space for a mobile home shall be not less than four thousand (4000) square feet with no dimension less than forty (40) feet. No such space shall be located less than twenty (20) feet from street lot lines or interior lot lines. Mobile Homes shall be located on each space so that there will not be less than twenty (20) feet to any other mobile home or building within the park.

Section 425.52 PARKING SPACES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 425.52 PARKING SPACES: Off-street parking shall be provided at the rate of not less than two (2) cars per mobile home space. Provisions for auxiliary parking shall be provided where required.

Section 426.1 GARAGES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 426.1 GARAGES: Garages when attached to motel residential buildings shall be Type-1 construction and all connecting openings shall be protected with approved type-A fire doors.

Section 429.4 LOCATIONS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 429.4 LOCATIONS: Private swimming pools shall not encroach on any front or side yard required by the Basic Code, Abridged Code, or the governing zoning law, except by specific rules of the community in which it may be located. No wall of a swimming pool shall be located less than five (5) feet from any street property line, except by specific rules of the community in which it may be located.

The BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE shall be amended to add the following Sections and the same are hereby ordained:

Section 432.0 SOUND AND COMFORT CONDITIONING: Air conditioning shall be installed in all new buildings of the following uses: L-1, L-2, Banks, Medical and Dental Clinics, Restaurants, Bars, Funeral Homes, Theaters, Auditoriums, Dance Halls, Lodge Halls, Churches, Schools, Hospitals, Rest Homes and similar uses.

Section 432.1 CRAWL SPACE: Crawl space areas with (Type-4) construction shall have three (3) inch insulation between joists or have heat openings to such areas.

CITY OF ROMULUS CHAPTER VI, ARTICLE 1.6

Section 432.2 SOUND CONDITIONING: All new L-1 and L-2 dwelling units shall be separated by walls resistant to more than fifty (50) decibels of sound. All exterior walls of (Type-4) construction of L-2 and L-3 use groups shall have three (3) inch insulation and ceilings shall have six (6) inch insulation.

Section 433.0 STORAGE CLOSETS: All new dwellings (L-2 and L-3) must have a clothes closet in each bedroom. Each such closet must have a minimum inside depth of twenty-four (24) inches and a minimum inside length of forty-eight (48) inches except that one bedroom must have a closet with minimum 2'x5' inside dimensions.

Section 433.1 VESTIBULE: All new dwellings (L-2 and L-3) must have a front (3'x4') entrance vestibule or foyer with a moisture proof floor covering and a clothes closet having a minimum floor area of eight (8) square feet, in or near such vestibule or foyer.

Section 433.2 BATHROOMS AND TOILET ROOMS: All such rooms in all use groups shall have a moisture proof floor and (4'') inch base or similar covering which can be kept sanitary.

Section 433.3 KITCHENS: All new (1-2 and L-3) dwellings shall have kitchens equipped with garbage disposals and shall have moisture resistant floor coverings which can be kept sanitary.

Section 500.00 and subsequent sections of the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE OF 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., together with the accumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be, and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:

Section 501.0 DEFINITIONS: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

HABITABLE ROOM, MINIMUM HEIGHT: A clear height from finished floor to finished ceiling of not less than eight (8') feet except that in second floor and attics and top half-stories the height shall be not less than seven and one-half (7½') feet over not less than one-half (½) the area of the floor and at no point less than five (5') feet in height when used for sleeping, study or similar activity.
HABITABLE ROOM, MINIMUM SIZE: A room with a minimum dimension of eight (8') feet and a minimum area of one hundred (100) square feet, between enclosing walls or partitions, exclusive of closet and storage spaces. Kitchens and dinettes must be a minimum seven (7') feet wide and fifty (50) square feet in area. Use group (L-2 and L-3) dwellings must have at least one room containing one hundred fifty (150) square feet of area.

Section 507.2 WINDOW SIZE: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 507.2 WINDOW SIZE: Windows and exterior doors may be used as a natural means of light and ventilation, and when so used their aggregate glass area shall amount to not less than one-eighth (⅛) of the floor area served, and with not less than one-half (½) of this required area available for unobstructed ventilation.

Section 508.3 CRAWL SPACES: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 508.3 CRAWL SPACES: In buildings and structures constructed without basements, in which the first floor construction does not bear directly on the ground, a space shall be provided under the first floor not less than twenty-four (24) inches in depth; shall be provided with an access door; and such space shall be vented with screened openings having a clear area of not less than one-third (1-3) of one (1) per cent of the enclosed crawl space area, or shall be provided with other means of ventilation approved by the building official; and shall have a plastic vapor barrier carried to the joists above or two (2'') inches of concrete laid on ground area. When floating mat foundations are provided in accordance with section 729.2, the requirement for ventilation shall not apply.

Section 513.0 BATH AND TOILET ROOMS Every toilet room shall be at least 4 feet by 5 feet, and bathrooms 4 feet by 7 feet, six inches with shower stall, or 5 feet by 7 feet six inches if with bath tub.

Section 513.1 EXTERIOR WINDOWS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 513.1 EXTERIOR WINDOWS: By windows opening to the outer air as provided in Section 507 but in no case less than six (6) square feet in area.

Section 513.2 VENT SHAFT WINDOWS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 513.2 VENT SHAFT WINDOWS: By windows as provided in Section 507 but in no case less than six (6) square feet in area, opening on a vent shaft with a cross-section area of one (1) square foot for every foot in height but not less than nine (9) square feet in area, open to the outer air at top or constructed with equivalent side louver openings.

Section 513.5 MECHANICAL VENTILATING SYSTEMS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 513.5 MECHANICAL VENTILATING SYSTEMS: By any system of mechanical or gravity ventilation capable of exhausting forty (40) cubic feet of air per minutes per water closet or urinal in public bathrooms and not less than twenty-five (25) cubic feet of air per minutes in private bathrooms, but in no case shall the fresh air supply be less than specified in Section 515 and Table 9-A and ducts shall exhaust to outer air.

Section 514.13 HALLWAYS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 514.13 HALLWAYS: Hallways shall have at least one (1) window opening of at least ten (10) square feet directly on a street or on a required yard or court in each story, located so that light penetrates the full length of the hallway, with additional windows for each change of direction of the hallway; or the equivalent artificial lighting shall be provided. Every recess or return with a depth or length which exceeds twice the width of the hall, and every corridor separately shut off by a door, shall be treated as a separate hall in applying the provisions of this section.

Section 515.8 KITCHENS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 515.8 KITCHENS: Kitchens which supply food for institutions, restaurants, hotel dining rooms, and cafeterias shall be provided with not less than three (3) cubic feet of fresh air intake and (use Group L-2 and L-3) shall have a hood fan vented to outer air.

Section 606.21 INADEQUATE EXITWAYS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following languages is hereby ordained:

Section 606.21 INADEQUATE EXITWAYS: In any existing building or structure, not now provided with exitway facilities as herein prescribed for new buildings and in which the exitways are deemed inadequate for safety by the building official, such additional provision shall be made for safe means of egress as he shall order comply with Sections 124.0 and 125.0.

Section 606.22 APPEAL FROM EXITWAY ORDER: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 606.22 APPEAL FROM EXITWAY ORDER: Within seven (7) days after the service of the exitway order of the building officials, the owner may file a written appeal therefrom, and the building official shall comply with Section 127.0 for a final determination.

Section 606.32 EXISTING EXITWAYS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 606.32 EXISTING EXITWAYS: In all buildings (other than one and two-family dwellings), exceeding three (3) stories or forty (40) feet in height, or having more than seventy-five (75) occupants above or more than forty (40) occupants below the grade floor, all existing unenclosed stairways shall be enclosed with partitions and opening protectives of three-quarter (¾) hour fire-resistance rating complying with article 9; or such exitways may be protected with a partial sprinkler system operated on the house water supply when complying with section 1214.6. Existing enclosures of sub-standard fire-resistive construction shall be covered on the stair side only with the component materials required for a three-quarter (¾) hour fire-resistive assembly upon order of the building official and to comply with Section 606.21 and Section 606.22.

ARTICLE 7

Section 700.0 and subsequent sections of the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE OF 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., together with the accumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be, and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:

Section 729.2 FLOATING MAT: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 729.2 FLOATING MAT: Concrete floating mat foundations shall be located on permanently undisturbed soil of adequate bearing capacity and shall be a minimum 2,500 pound test. The building official may approve a continuous foundation mat which is located directly on the ground when adequate sub-soil drainage and a rat-proof apron as specified in Section 874.0 are provided when required. When subject to freezing, the footings shall be designed to resist frost action to comply with the following:

(a) Concrete Mats, Pads or Slabs: Concrete mats or slabs for dwellings or additions built directly on bearing soil shall have one (1'') inch rigid perimeter insulation a distance of two (2') feet below slab and two (2') feet from inside of foundation wall in vertical and horizontal planes and shall be a minimum of four (4'') inches in thickness laid over six (6) mil polyethylene over four (4'') inch compacted fill sand or pebbles and shall be thickened to eight (8'') inches at interior bearing walls. Such mats shall have eight inch by forty-two inch (8' x 42'') concrete perimeter foundations for frame structures or ten inch by forty-two inch (10' x 42'') foundations for brick veneer or masonry structures and shall be carried at least eight (8'') inches above grade.

(b) Slab Foundations for Detached Buildings: Concrete pads or slabs for detached frame garages, shed, stables, porches, patios and single mobile home made shall be a minimum of four (4'') inches thick with four (4'') inch compacted ill sand and shall have a minimum six inch by twenty-four inch (6x24'') concrete foundation carried at least four (4'') inches above grade except mobile home pads and patio slabs may be at grade. Double mobile home pads over fourteen feet by seventy feet (14' x 70') shall be of six (6'') inch thick concrete, and shall have eight inch by forty-two inch (8' x 42'') perimeter foundations or may be of four (4'') inch thick concrete, with eight inch (8'') inch by forty-two inch (8' x 42'') perimeter foundations, and an eight (8'') inch thick area provided under the center of long dimension. All mobile home pads and dwellings slabs shall be reinforced with six inch by six inch (6' x 6'') - No. 10 gauge reinforcing wire mesh. Mobile home pads shall be at least twelve (12'') inches wider and twelve (12'') inches longer than mobile homes to be placed thereon to accept skirting systems and shall also be provided with a five feet by ten feet (5' x 10') apron gr rubbish containers.

(c) Slab Foundations for Attached Buildings: Dwellings additions or garages attached to dwellings of wood frame or masonry construction and covered patios, or porches or steps, attached to dwellings shall have perimeter foundations at least eight (8'') inches in width and forty-two (42'') inches in depth (8' x 42''). When foundation footings and block masonry to grade are used for such construction the footings shall be of eight (8'') inch deep concrete at least eight (8'') inches wider than foundation walls and shall be forty-two (42'') inches below grade on bearing soil, and all such foundations shall be carried 8 inches above grade for wood frame structures.

(d) Anchors: Three-eighths (⅜'') inch anchor bolts, eight (8') feet on centers, or approved steel anchor straps or eye bolts shall be installed in concrete pads or foundations or in block foundations to anchor all mobile homes, from garages, sheds, outbuildings, parking lot offices, stables, or frame dwellings built on pads or slabs or on piers; against overturning or dislodgement.

ARTICLE 8

Section 800.0 and subsequent sections of the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE OF 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., together with the accumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be, and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:

Section 804.2 WORKING LOAD DEFLECTION: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 804.2 WORKING LOAD DEFLECTION: Under the approved working load, the deflection of floor and roof assemblies shall not be greater than one three-hundred-sixtieth (1-360) of the span for plastered or drywalled construction; one two-hundred-fortieth (1-240) of the span for unplastered floor construction; and one one-hundred-eightieth (1-180) of the span for unplastered roof construction.

Section 825.2 TYPES: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 825.2 TYPES: Plywood for interior use may be either of the moisture resistant or exterior type; plywood for exterior use shall be of the exterior waterproof type. Exterior plywood may be applied directly to the framing as a siding, provided it has a nominal thickness of one-half (½) inch. Joints shall occur over framing members, unless wood or plywood sheathing is used or joints are lapped horizontally a minimum of one and one-half (1½) inches or otherwise made waterproof to the satisfaction of the building official. If plywood is used as lapped siding without sheathing, the wall framing to which it is attached shall be diagonally braced, and a suitable vapor barrier shall be applied to framing.

Section 825.31 VERTICAL MAXIMUM STUD SPACING: To the table, forming a part of Section 825.31 the following footnote is added:

NOTE: Total sub-floor and top floor (wood) thickness must equal 1¼" in use groupy where Type-4 construction is used.

Section 825.32 PLYWOOD COMBINATION SUBFLOOR-UNDERLAYMENT: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 825.32 PLYWOOD COMBINATION SUBFLOOR-UNDERLAYMENT:

ALLOWABLE SPAN FOR PLYWOOD COMBINATION SUBFLOOR-UNDERLAYMENT (1)

Plywood Continuous over Two (2) or More Spans and Face Grain Perpendicular to Supports

Species Groups Maximum Spacing of Joists (inches)

4 5½"

2, 3 and 4 3½"

1-Applicable to Underlayment Grade, C-C (Plugged) and all grades of sanded exterior type plywood.

Spans limited to values shown because of possible effect of concentrated loads. Allowable uniform load based on deflection of 1-360 of span is 100 psf. Plywood edges shall have approved tongue-and-groove joints or shall be supported with blocking, unless one-fourth (¼) inch minimum thickness underlayment is installed, or finish floor is twenty-five thirty-seconds (25-32) inchwood strip.

NOTE: (a) Total subfloor and top floor (wood) must equal (1¼) inches in use groups where type-4 construction is used and joist spacing shall not exceed sixteen (16'') inches.

(b) A minimum one-quarter (¼'') underlayment over subfloor shall be required where resilient floor coverings such as vinyl, vinyl asbestos and linoleum are used.

Section 855.1 WOOD-STUD FRAMING: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 855.1 WOOD FRAMING: The quality and design of all wood members used for load supporting purposes in buildings or other structures shall conform to the standards hereinafter specified, in all use groups where wood frame construction is permitted.

All members shall be so framed, anchored, tied and braced together as to develop the strength and rigidity necessary for the purposes for which they are used.

(a) LUMBER GRADE: All lumber used for horizontal structural members shall be standard and better or No. 2 grade and better except as noted hereafter.

Lumber of stud grade or No. 3 grade may be used for studding and similar uses provided each piece is sound stock, and wane is limited to that which does not impair nailing or bearing edges.

(b) LUMBER SIZES: All wood structural members shall be of sufficient size to carry the dead and live loads without exceeding the allowable working stresses conforming with Appendixes "B" and "C".

Minimum sizes of lumber members required by this Code refer to nominal sizes. American Lumber Standard dressed sizes shall be accepted as the minimum net sizes conforming to nominal sizes. Computations to determine the required sizes of members shall be based on the net dimensions (actual size) and not the nominal sizes. If rough sizes or finish sizes exceeding American Lumber Standard dressed sizes are to be used, computations may be predicated upon such actual sizes, provided they are specified on plans or in statement appended thereto. For convenience, nominal sizes may be shown on the plans.

The species and grade or the stress-grade of all lumber used for load bearing purposes shall be stated on the plans filed with the Department.

"Grade", when used in connection with lumber for structural purposes, is a classification with respect to strength.

(c) FASTENINGS: Except as in this Code otherwise provided, the provisions of Appendix "L" pertaining to the preparation, fabrication and installation of wood members and the connectors and mechanical devices for the fastening thereof are incorporated herein by reference and made a part of this Ordinance, and shall be regarded as controlling and regulating all construction in the City of Romulus involving such preparation, fabrication and intallation of wood members and the connectors and mechanical devices for the fastening thereof.

(d) COLUMNS: The safe bearing capacity of solid timber or built up wood columns shall be calculated in accordance with Appendixes "B" and "C".

(e) BEAMS: Wood beams, solid or built up sections, shall be designed in accordance with Appendixes "B" and "C".

(f) TRUSSES AND LAMINATED STRUCTURAL MEMBERS: Wood trusses shall be designed in accordance with Appendixes "B" and "C".

(g) FRAME-WALL CONSTRUCTION: Frame wall construction shall consist of at least (1½' x 3½'') studs placed not over 16 inches on centers with all studs having their larger dimensions at right angles to face of wall in all exterior and interior walls, except that in framing bay windows they may be placed at angles with wall. Three studs shall be provided at all corners and intersections with partitions. Baseboard blocks shall be provided one on each side of all corners and door openings where¾" plaster and lath is used. The outside of exterior wall studs shall have three-quarter (¾'') inch of wood sheathing nailed to each stud, or one-half (½'') inch plywood or insulating sheathing, and all cases a layer of 15 lb. tarred felt paper. Four (4'') inches of brick; or (7-16) inch at butt wood siding; or (0.024) inch thick aluminum lap siding; applied over one-half (½'') inch plywood or nail base or other approved weather proof siding may be used on new construction, additions, and iterations. Private residential garages shall comply with the above requirements except that frame garages may have sheathing omitted if covered with a minimum three-quarter (¾'') inch horizontal wood siding; or one-half (½'') inch plywood or other approved siding, and provided "Sisal Kraft" or equal paper is applied under such siding. All buildings, include garages, shall have wind bracing at exterior corners except where one-half (½'') inch plywood is used for sheathing.

(h) OPENINGS: Openings in frame exterior or interior bearing walls shall be bridged by timbers or built up headers set on edge of the proper size to support the superimposed load, but in no case less than the following nominal sizes:

Timbers or Headers of Nominal Size for

	1-story Construction	2-story Construction
2-2x4's or 1-4x4	4 ft. span	3 ft. span
2-2x6's or 1-4x6	6 ft. span	5 ft. span
2-2x8's or 1-4x8	8 ft. span	7 ft. span
2-2x10's or 1-4x10	10 ft. span	9 ft. span

Sides of openings over 5 feet shall have 3 studs on each side, two (2) of which shall be cut square to form nominal 4 x 4 inch bearings for the bridging timbers. Short pieces of studs shall not be used for this purpose. At the sides of openings up to 5 ft. there shall be 2 studs on each side the inner of which shall be cut square to form a nominal 2 x 4 bearing for the bridging timbers.

(i) WOOD JOIST FRAMING: Headers and trimmers, when 2 inches nominal thickness, may be fastened by nails, bolts or lag screws. Such headers and trimmers, framing ipenings shall be nailed and attached to one another with steel angles, or joist clips. Timbers over 2 inches in thickness shall be supported by tenons fitted to mortises or by steel, joist hangers, or joist angles on each side. Bolts may be calculated as resisting tension, but lag screws and nails shall only be assumed to resist shear.

(l) Joists 2 inches nominal thickness when supported on girders shall be well nailed at laps to corresponding joists in next span. Larger joists shall be similarly joined with well nailed steel straps at least 1 inch by ¼th inch (1"x¼''). Wood girders resting upon a common column shall be connected with similar straps, unless built up of 2 inch nominal lumber, in which case straps may be omitted if at least one-third of the joists are continuous over columns. Wood girders in buildings more than 3 stories high shall not be continuous over columns but each column shall be provided with a steel or cast iron column cap forming a seat for the column above and providing beam seats for girder having a lug set into bottom of girders to prevent lateral movement; but permitting free release of girder in case of fire.

(2) Bridging. All wood joists less than (4) inches thick shall be securely bridged with sound nominal (1 inch by 3 inch) wood cross bracing, or by solid block bridging 2 inches nominal width, snugly fitted and doubly nailed at each end, at intervals of not over (8) feet from supports to lines of bridging or between lines of bridging, or strap iron cross bracing approved by the Department may be used, such strap iron to be provided with nail holes, to have a net effective cross section of not less than 3-100 of a square inch, and to be securely nailed at the top and bottom of each brace. Blocking or ribbon bridging shall be installed at steel beam or masonry bearings to prevent lateral movement.

(3) Not less than (2) joists shall be provided under any partition or around any floor opening. Headers supporting more than 2 joists and supported from other joists shall be attached with joist hangers approved by the Department, or double joist angles with nails in each leg. Bearing partitions in 2 story structures shall have 4 joists.

(4) The top of joists supporting floors shall be at least ¼ inch higher than any steel beams or masonry below such floors to allow for shrinkage settlement.

(5) Over all floor joists there shall be a sub-floor of at least (½) inch. All end joints in sub-flooring shall be over joists. Over the sub-floor there shall be a top floor or finished floor of wood, plywood or particle board for a total thickness of sub-floor and top floor of not less than (1¼) inches. All areas having a resilient floor (vinyl or linoleum) shall have at least a ¼ inch plywood underlayment. All first floors shall have 15 tarred felt paper provided between the sub-floor and the top floor. Unfinished attics having stairways shall be floored with at least (½) inch sub-flooring in areas having (5') feet or more headroom.

(6) In constructing the floors of dwellings the following nominal sizes of joists and girders may be used providing the actual size is not more than (½) inch less than the nominal size and that the timber used is Southern pine, Douglas fir or equivalent.

(a) FLOOR JOIST SIZES: Minimum size of floor joists spaced 16 inches on centers:

Span up to	Nominal Size
13'0"	2x8
18'0"	2x12

(b) STAIR WELLS or other openings framed across the run of floor joists shall have headers of the same size timbers as the joists but if supporting more than (1) joist the headers shall not be stressed greater than stresses allowed in Appendix "B" or shall be as follows: (c) Headers supporting not over 3 joists - doubled

(d) Headers supporting not over 7 joists - tripled

(e) Headers supporting more than 2 joists and supported from other joists shall be attached with steel joist hangers or double joist angles with 6 nails in each leg.

(f) Larger Openings shall be supported on partitions, stanchions, large timbers, or steel beams or masonry.

(g) Trimmer joists supporting headers that support more than one (1) joist shall be doubled.

(h) Trimmer joists supporting headers that support more than five (5) joists shall be tripled.

(i) Trimmer joists supporting headers that support more than seven (7) joists shall be supported by partitions, steel stanchions, or masonry, large timbers, or steel beams of adequate size.

(j) WOOD GIRDERS. Minimum size of girders supporting floors of dwelling where the average lengths of joists do not exceed 13 feet for one-story structures only: Built up floor structure girders not permitted for buildings over one (1) story. Solid timbers may be used in two (2) story structures.

Span in Feet	Size of Girder
7'	3-2x8's or 2-2x10's
8'	4-2x8's or 3-2x10's
9'	4-2x10's or 3-2x12's

(k) CEILING JOISTS: Minimum size of ceiling joists spaced (16'') on centers.

Span in Feet	Size of Joists
up to 15'	2x6
up to 18'	2x8
up to 20'	2x10

All ceiling joists over (12') foot span shall have a 2x6 "L" member or strong back nailed across joists at midspan, and ceiling joists cut for chimneys or other openings shall be framed as in stairwell requirements.

(l) ROOF CONSTRUCTION: Roofs having less than (one-third) pitch, the rafters or roof trusses shall be calculated from the loads and stresses given in Appendix "B". For roofs (one-third) pitch or more, the rafter shall not be more than 16 inches on centers except as designed roof trusses and the length, measured from bearing to ridge or to intermediate supports shall not exceed the following lengths.

(l) RAFTERS: Rafters of Douglas fir or equivalent.

Nominal Size	Maximum Length	Max. Length Asphalt 16" centers	Slate and Tile Roofs or Wood Shingles Roofs
2x4	4 ft. 0 in.	6 ft. 0 in.
2x6	14 ft. 0 in.	17 ft. 0 in.
2x8	19 ft. 0 in.	23 ft. 0 in.

(2) All rafters shall be in pairs and shall meet exactly at a 2" full bearing ridge. Intermediate supports between walls and ridge where required shall be securely nailed at top and bottom. Such supports shall consist of vertical members supporting each rafter. When supporting more than one rafter the load shall come directly over bearing partition below; or shall be provided with a purlin beam. When span of rafters is not over 12 feet the nominal size of purlin beams and the maximum numbers of rafters bearing on purlins between supports shall be as follows:

(3) PURLIN BEAMS:

No. of Rafters	Size of Purlins	No. of Rafter	Size of Purlins
2	on 4 x 40 or 2-2x4	9	on 4x10 or 2-2x12
3	on 4x4 or 2-2x6	10	on 4x10 or 2-2x12
4	on 4x4 or 2-2x6	11	on 4x12 or 1-6x10
5	on 4x6 or 2-2x8	12	on 4x12 or 1-6x10
6	on 4x6 or 2-2x88	13	on 6x12 or 1-8x10
7	on 4x8 or 2-2x10	14	on 6x12 or 1-8x10
8	on 4x8 or 2-2x10	15	on 6x12 or 1-8x10

(4) Above such supports but not higher than is necessary for head room, collar ties not less than nominal 1 x 6 boards shall be provided 32" on centers. All roof rafters shall be securely toenailed to wall plates and ceiling joists. Roof rafters of great unsupported length than given herein shall be of proportionaately larger timbers.

(5) When roof rafters are supported from ceiling joists or attic floor structures, joists used shall support (20) pounds per square foot in addition to the live and dead load of such floor or ceiling structures.

(6) Roof rafters cut for chimneys or other openings shall be framed and doubled as in stairwell framing requirements.

Section 855.14 MORTISE AND TENON FRAMING: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 855.14 MORTISE AND TENOR OR POST AND BEAM FRAMING: Where such framing is used, the vertical members of the frame shall be not less than four (4) by six (6) inches in size and shall be designed as a column.

Section 855.61 BRIDGING: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 855.61 BRIDGING: Except as hereinafter noted, in all ceiling, and roof framing, there shall be not less than one (1) line of ribbon bridging for each eight (8) feet of span. The bridging shall consist of not less than one (1) by three (3) inch lumber, double-nailed at each joist, or of equivalent metal bracing of equal rigidity. A line of bridging shall also be required at bearings where adequate lateral support is not otherwise provided and a 2 x 6 "L" member provided over ceiling joists where not of truss type construction.

Midspan bridging is not required for roof framing in one and two-family dwellings (use group L-3) and multi-family dwellings (use group L-2) except when the rafter or joist depth exceeds six (6) inches nominal and-or when the minim uniformly distributed live load exceeds thirty (30) pounds per square foot.

Section 870.1 DESIGN: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 870.1 DESIGN: Foundation walls shall be designed to resist frost action and to support safely all vertical and lateral loads as provided in article 7. The maximum stresses due to combined load shall be within the values specified for the materials used in the construction. Unless properly reinforced, tensile stresses shall not exceed those permitted in plain masonry.

(a) Crawl Space Foundations: Perimeter crawl space foundations shall be concrete or masonry a minimum eight (8) inches wide and a minimum 42) inches below necessary to enter the property where the excavation is to be made.

(b) Whenever an excavation is carried to a point within a foot of the pressure plane of any existing building or structure such building or structure shall be adequately underpinned or otherwise made safe and secure, except if there is three (3) feet or more of undisturbed earth over the pressure plane the excavation may be carried to the pressure poane, but not beyond, unless such foundations are underpinned.

(c) Before proceeding with any excavation below the pressure plane of the earth beneath the foundations of any existing building, the person excavating shall give a written notice of the owner or agent in charge of the existing building, stating the depth and location of the proposed excavation. The written notice shall be delivered to the owner or agent of the existing building at least one (1) week before the excavation reaches the pressure plane. The pressure plane shall be assumed to be the plane forming the top boundary of the earth under pressure from the foundations and shall be considered as a plane starting from the bottom of the outer edge of the foundations under the existing building and extending downward one (1) foot for each two (2) feet of horizontal projection unless the condition to the soil is such as to produce a materially different distribution of pressure. Section 1308.14 EXCAVATIONS FOR OTHER THAN CONSTRUCTION PURPOSES: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 1308.14 EXCAVATIONS FOR OTHER THAN CONSTRUCTION PURPOSES: Excavations made for the purpose of removing soil, earth, sand, gravel, rock or other materials shall be performed in such a manner as will prevent injury to neighboring properties or to the street which adjoins the lot where such materials are excavated, and to safeguard the general public health and welfare. Excavation shall not be made in streets, alleys or other public property, or extending into any public property, without a permit from the Department except that excavations may extend over lot lines into streets, alleys or other public property or into adjoining privately owned lands a sufficient distance to permit access to the exterior of basement walls. All such excavations shall be back-filled with suitable material, well tamped in place, and all sidewalks, pavements and other objects, both natural and artificial, replaced by the excavator in as good a condition as they were in originally. All public sidewalks and pavements shall be replaced under the supervision of an inspector of the Department and all fill used under public sidewalks and pavements shall be gravel, sand or other material approved by the Department.

Section 1308.21 DEEP EXCAVATIONS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 1308.21 RESPONSIBILITY - EXCAVATION PENETRATING PRESSURE PLANE: Whenever an excavation is more than 3'6" below the established grade of the curb or street upon which the building, structure, or land fronts and penetrates the pressure plane of the earth under the foundations of any adjacent building or structure, the person excavating shall at his own expense underpin the foundations of the existing adjacent buildings or structures and render such structures or buildings safe and secure, in the opinion of the Director, or he may shore and brce the sides of his excavation so as to effectively prevent any earth movement into his excavation providing the Director approves of the methods used. If necessary for the performance of this work, the person excavating shall have a reasonable right ingress to the property upon which the existing building is erected. Section 1308.22 SHALLOW EXCAVATIONS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 1308.22 RESPONSIBILITY - SHALLOW EXCAVATIONS: Whenever an excavation is made to a depth less than 3'6" below the mean established grade of the curb or street upon which the building or structure fronts, the owner of a neighboring building or structure, the safety of which may be affected by the proposed excavation, shall, at his own expense, preserve and protect from injury and shall support his building walls or structure by the necessary underpinning or foundations. If necessary, for that purpose, he shall be afforded a license to enter the premises where the excavation is contemplated.

Section 1911.0 LIGHT WOOD FRAME CONSTRUCTION: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 1911.0 LIGHT WOOD FRAME CONSTRUCTION: The fabrication of all wood frame strutures for all use groups shall comply with the requirements of Section 855. SAVINGS CLAUSE: That nothing in this Ordinance or in the Building Code hereby adopted shall be construed to affect any suit or proceeding impending in any court or any rights acquitted or liability incurred or any cause or causes of action acquired or existing under any act or ordinance hereby repealed by this Ordinance; nor shall any just or legal right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired or affected by this Ordinance.

SEVERABILITY: Should any section, clause or pvision of this ordinance be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the section, clause or provision of this Ordinance declared by such Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The City Council recognizes that the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the City of Romulus is paramount and of an emergency nature, and, therefore, the provisions of this Ordinance shall take immediate effect upon publication of the same in the manner provided by law.

This Ordinance was duly adopted by the Council of the City of Romulus on the 4th day of November, 1974.

74-759

Motion by Block, supported by Oakley, that Council concur with the recommendation of the Mayor and adopt Resolution 74-759 (Permission for Chemical Recovery to utilize Wayne County Sewage Disposal System):

RESOLUTION 74-759

WHEREAS: Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc., 36345 Van Born Road, Romulus, Michigan on June 8, 1972 petitioned the Romulus City Council to grant permission for said company to connect to sanitary sewer line of the City of Wayne; which sewer line is parallel to and north of Van Born Road; and

WHEREAS: Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc., set forth therein their intention to use sewer for treated plant water from industrial processing and sewage disposal, a step to facilitate Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc. elimination of the difficulties and pollution being caused by said corporation; and

WHEREAS: Wade, Trim and Associates, City Engineers for the City of Romulus did, on August 1, 1972, recommend to the Romulus City Council that permission to connect the sanitary lead to the City of Wayne be granted with the following provisions:

1. The City of Wayne agrees to accept the building connection from Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc.
2. Items one and two indicated in the request of Chemical Recovery Systems' letter dated June 8, 1972 be incorporated in the approval.
3. Item three in Chemical Recovery Systems' letter of June 8, 1972 be modified from the three (3) year time limit requested to eighteen (18) months. On May 4, 1971, when the Council approved the request of the previous owner, the time limit to connect into the City of Romulus system was changed from three (3) years to eighteen (18) months after it becomes available.

and, WHEREAS: The City Council at a regularly scheduled meeting held August 1, 1972 by its Resolution 72-458 concurred with City Engineers recommendation and authorized City Attorney to prepare a contract approving Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc. connection to the City of Wayne sanitary sewer system; and

WHEREAS: The then City Attorney, Elsmann, Young and O'Rourke, for the City of Romulus did prepare an agreement for sanitary sewage disposal based on the guidance provided by the Romulus City Council in its Resolution 72-458; and

WHEREAS: On September 20, 1972 the City of Romulus did notify the City of Wayne in a letter drawn to the attention of Wallace G. Arrowsmith, City Manager of the City of Wayne, advising said City of the action taken by the City Council of the City of Romulus.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the City Council of the City of Romulus, based on the foregoing outline of the history of Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc. situation does, herewith, reaffirm the intent of the action set forth and approved.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus does hereby stipulate that it has no objections to the connection by the Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc. to the and-or the Middle Rouge Sewage System.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be forwarded to the attention of the Wayne County Department of Public Works, the City of Wayne and Chemical Recovery Systems, Inc.

Lewkowicz, City Treasurer. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Stewart, Oakley, Trumble, Lee, Coleman, Block, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

74-765

Motion by Oakley, supported by Lee, that Resolution 74-765 (Establishment of delinquent tax revolving fund by Wayne County) be adopted:

WHEREAS: The inflationary trend of economic conditions today make the problem of fiscal responsibility increasingly more difficult for the City of Romulus; and

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus is dependent upon annual tax collection to defray more than ninety (90 percent) percent of its annual expenditures; and

WHEREAS: Taxes on real property constitute the preponderance of said taxes and any method which may be derived to facilitate the acquisition of said taxes would go far towards the enhancement of the City fiscal control; and provides for the establishment of a delinquent tax revolving fund; and

WHEREAS: The provisions of Act 202, Chapter 4, Section 9 of the Public Acts of-1933, as amended, provide that the County may borrow whatever funds may be necessary to pay local units of government the full amount of delinquent taxes returned to the County on March 1st of each year; and

WHEREAS: The receipt of all delinquent taxes in a single payment would afford all local units of government, as well as, all local school units a tremendous tool with which fiscal responsibility may be accosted.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: By the City Council of the City of Romulus that it does, herewith, improve the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to establish a delinquent tax revolving fund to be used exclusively for the payment to local units of all delinquent taxes owing said unit as of March 1st annually.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That if the necessity exists the County of Wayne borrow such funds as may be required to accomplish the aforementioned.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be forwarded to the Board of Wayne County Commissioners and all surrounding communities.

Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Lee, Stewart, Trumble, Oakley, Block, Coleman, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Oakley, supported by Trumble, that the Treasurer's Report be accepted. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Stewart, Lee, Coleman, Block, Oakley, Trumble, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

74-766

12. Motion by Stewart, supported by Coleman, that Council approve Change Orders Nos. 1, 2 and 3 in favor of Huron Sod Farms in the total amount of $6,651.10. Said Change Orders reflecting work involving construction of the Elmer Johnson Park Project. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Oakley, Trumble, Stewart, Lee, Coleman, Block, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

74-767

13. Motion by Oakley, supported by Coleman, that Resolution 74-767 (Support of Proposition "A") be adopted:

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus recognizes the need for expanded and improved programs for the construction and maintenance of roads and bridges within the City of Romulus and certainly the State of Michigan; and

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus is cognizant of the detrimental effects any loss of revenue would have on existing and future road and bridge improvement programs; and

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus believes that the current formula for distribution of gas and weight tax dollars should be maintained as it exists today; and

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus is aware that Proposal "A" to be placed before the electorate at the forthcoming election will protect those revenues and maintain the existing formula for distribution of those revenues.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus does, herewith, set forth its support of Proposal "A" as a means of assuring the future of our Local, County and State Highway Systems.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus pledges their support and urge the citizens of the City of Romulus to extend their support to the passage of Proposal "A".

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus, by the adoption of this Resolution, does in no way exhibit opposition of the State of Michigan's mass transit program.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be forwarded to Wayne County, County Board of Commissioners and all surrounding communities.

74-769

Motion by Block, supported by Coleman, that Resolution 74-769 (Urban Renewal Project Loan Notes) be adopted:

RESOLUTION 74-769

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus (herein called the "Local Issuing Agency") has entered into one or more contracts (which, together with any supplements thereto or amendments or waivers of any provisions thereof, are herein called the "Contract") with the United States of America (herein called the "Government") proving for a loan by the Government to the Local Issuing Agency for financing the urban renewal, low-rent housing or redevelopment project(s) described in the Contract and herein called the "Project"; and

WHEREAS: Pursuant to advertisement for the receipt of proposals for the purchase of the Second Series 1974 of Project Notes (herein sometimes called "New Project Notes") of the Local Issuing Agency aggregating $2,744,000.00 which appeared in a Notice of Sale published on September 25, 1974, in the Romulus Roman in the City of Belleville, Michigan and in the Daily Bond Buyer in the City of New York, New York, proposals for the purchase of the New Project Notes in the form approved by the Local Issuing Agency were received, opened, and canvassed at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement, to wit: at 6446 Wayne Road in the City of Romulus, Michigan 48174 at One O'Clock P.M. E.D.S.T., on October 16, 1974, which proposals are as follows:

NAME OF BIDDER	INTEREST RATE	PRINCIPAL AMOUNT	PREMIUM
First National City Bank	4.92	$2,744,000	$45.00
New York and Associates
Chemical Bank	4.99	2,744,000	6.00

The Detroit Bank and Trust Company	4.99	2,744,000	31.00

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: By the Local Issuing Agency as follows:

Section 1. The aforesaid publication of the Notice of Sale and the form and contents thereof as so published are hereby, in all respects, approved, ratified and confirmed.

Section 2. In order to provide funds to pay expenses incurred or to be incurred in the development of the Project, or to refund, renew or extend its outstanding Notes issued in connection therewith, the Local Issuing Agency hereby determines to borrow the sum of Two Million Seven Hundred Forty-four Thousand Dollars ($2,744,000.00) and issue its negotiable Project Notes therefor.

Section 3. The Local Issuing Agency hereby ratifies and approves the form of each proposal hereinafter in this Section 3 enumerated for the purchase of the designated principal amount of Notes and determines that each such proposal offers to purchase such Notes at the lowest interest rate and is therefore accepted, and said Notes are hereby awarded to the purchaser, as follows:

PRINCIPAL AMOUNT	INTEREST RATE	PURCHASER
$2,744,000.00	4.92	First National City Bank, New York and Associates

Section 4. Each Note shall be dated November 12, 1974, shall be payable as to both principal and interest to bearer, on March 14, 1975, and pursuant to each proposal for the purchase of said Notes hereinabove accepted, shall bear the rate of interest per annum, payable at maturity; shall bear the numbers and be in the denominations; and shall be payable as to both principal and interest at the incorporated bank having trust powers or incorporated trust company, as follows:

PURCHASER	NUMBERS	DENOMINATIONS	INTEREST RATE	PAYABLE AT
First National City Bank, New York and Associates	1 - 105 106 - 128 129 - 132	$25,000 5,000 1,000	4.92	First National City Bank, New York, New York

None of such Notes shall be valid until after the bank or trust company at which it is payable shall be signed the agreement, appearing on each Note, to act as paying agent thereof. Each such Note shall be executed in the name of the Local Issuing Agency by the manual or facsimile signature of the Mayor and countersigned by the City Clerk of the Local Issuing Agency and shall have the corporate seal of the Local Issuing Agency impressed, imprinted or reproduced thereon and attested by the City Clerk, and said officers are hereby authorized and directed to cause said Notes to be properly executed.

Section 5. Each Such Note shall be in substantially the form of HUD-9010, which is incorporated herein by reference, and shall be secured by an agreement entitled "Requisition Agreement No. 2-1974" (herein called the "Requisition Agreement"), in substantially the form HUD-9003, which is incorporated by reference, to be entered into between the Local Issuing Agency and the Government.

Section 6. The Requisition Agreement shall be executed in the name of the Local Issuing Agency by the manual or facsimile signature of the Mayor of the Local Issuing Agency and shall have the corporate seal of the Local Issuing Agency impressed, imprinted or reproduced thereon and attested by the City Clerk, and said officers are hereby authorized and directed to cause the Requisition Agreement to be properly executed.

Section 7. For the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on the New Project Notes, the Local Issuing Agency hereby expressly and irrevocably promises to pay any sums which may be received from the Government pursuant to the Requisition Agreement relating to such series of Project Notes and said Agreement, when executed by the Government, is hereby declared to be and is hereby assigned by the Local Issuing Agency for the benefit of the holder or holders from time to time of the New Project Notes. All contributions, funds and amounts authorized or required by the Contract to be applied to the payment of Project Loan Notes (Referred to in the Contract as "Project Temporary Loan Obligations", "Advance Notes" or "Permanent Notes") as issued in connection with the Project are hereby irrevocably pledged to secure the payment of the principal of and interest to maturity on the New Project Notes. Such pledge and the lien created thereby shall cease and terminate when monies or investment securities convertible into cash not later than the maturity date of the New Project Notes, sufficient and for the purpose of paying the principal and interest to maturity on such Notes, are deposited with the paying agent or agents for such Notes.

Section 8. The proceeds derived from the sale of the New Project Notes, together with such amount of other funds of the Local Issuing Agency as may be necessary, shall be applied, simultaneously with the receipt of said proceeds, in accordance with the provisions of the Requisition Agreement.

Section 9. The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to send promptly a letter to each paying agent for the New Project Notes in substantially the form of HUD-9004, which is incorporated herein by reference, and to transmit therewith (a) the New Project Notes for which the addressee is the paying agent for delivery and payment and (b) a signature certificate and receipt, in accordance with the terms of said letter, and to take such other actions as may be required to complete the delivery transaction in accordance with the terms of the letter to the paying agent.

Section 10. This Resolution shall take effect immediately. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Stewart, Trumble, Oakley, Lee, Coleman, Block, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion by Coleman, supported by Lee, that Council does, and hereby give notice of intent to transfer $174,783.88 from Account No. 101-592-000-101-01 (Water and Sewer) to the Urban Renewal Fund. CHAPTER VI, ARTICLE 1.4

CITY OF ROMULUS

ROMULUS BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE

WHEREAS, the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE of 1970 as adopted by the City of Romulus in accordance with Section 14 of Act No. 230 of the Public Acts of 1972 is deemed by the City of Romulus, in certain particulars, to be inadequate in terms of protection to the property, lives, safety, health and welfare of the people of the City of Romulus; and

WHEREAS, by the amendments hereinafter adopted, either in this Ordinance or in Ordinances subsequently enacted, it is the intention of the City of Romulus to provide additional and adequate safeguards to the people of the City of Romulus.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY OF ROMULUS HEREBY ORDAINS:

Short Title: Amendment to Romulus BOCA Basic Building Code.

SECTION 1. The BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE of 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., together with the cumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be, and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:

Section 100.1 TITLE:

Wherever the words (name of municipality) either in said section or any other section of the BOCA Basic Building Code is used there shall be inserted therein the words "City of Romulus".

Section 102.0 ORDINARY REPAIRS: Said Section 102.0, as presently contained in the BOCA Code, is repealed and in its place and stead the following shall be substituted.

Section 102.0 ORDINARY REPAIRS

Ordinary repairs costing less than $200.00 to buildings may be made without application or notice to the Building Official; but such repairs shall not include the cutting away of any wall, partition or portion thereof, the removal or cutting of any structural beam or bearing support, or the removal or change of any required means of egress, or rearrangement of parts of a structure affecting the exitway requirements; nor shall ordinary repairs include addition to, alteration of, replacement or relocation of any standpipe, water supply, sewer, drainage, drain leader, gas, soil, waste, vent or similar piping, electric wiring or mechanical or other work affecting public health or general safety.

Section 105.1 CONTINUATION OF EXISTING USE:

Section 105.1 is amended by the insertion within the language of said section, both in Section 105.1, or in any section of the BOCA Code where date of adoption is called for by the insertion of the date of adoption by reference of the BOCA Basic Building Code by the City of Romulus, to-wit: October 8, 1974.

Section 107.1 BUILDING OFFICIAL: is hereby repealed and in its place the following amendment is ordained:

Section 107.1 BUILDING OFFICIAL: The department of building and safety of the City of Romulus is hereby created and the director in charge thereof shall be known as the Building Official. Wherever the BOCA Code, as adopted by reference, uses the term "department of building inspection" there shall be substituted therefor the "department of building and safety" and wherever the term "executive official" is used in said BOCA Code there shall be substituted in the place thereof the term "Director".

Section 109.3 PROMULGATION OF RULES: and the language subsequently contained in said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following language is hereby ordained:

Section 109.3 PROMULGATION OF RULES: No rule or regulation shall become effective until four weeks after the intention to adopt such rules shall have been published in accordance with local statutes in an official paper or public newspaper with general circulation in the municipality.

Section 113.1 WHEN PERMIT IS REQUIRED: is hereby repealed in its entirety and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 113.1 WHEN PERMIT IS REQUIRED: It shall be unlawful for a person to commence any work, as defined herein, within the City, without first obtaining a building permit for such work. The person commencing or carrying on such work shall cause such permit to be prominently displayed on the work site, clearly visible from the street. The term "work" as used in this paragraph shall include the following: a) the erecting, altering, repairing, improving, or demolishing of any building or structure within the city, including the installation of re-roofing, siding, or other covering on the exterior walls of buildings, stairways or means of ingress and egress, the installation of kerosene, gasoline or fuel oil storage tanks, the installation of lighting and power poles and cables, gas mains, and telephone poles and cables, as well as the doing of excavating work, concrete work, and paving work, if, in the opinion of the director, the cost of such work shall exceed $200, b) the erection of any sign as provided in the sign ordinance of the City of Romulus, c) the installation of any elevators or hoists governed by the requirements of this Basic Building Code, d) the installation or alteration of any plumbing as provided in the water and sewer connection and extension ordinance of the City of Romulus, e) the installation or alteration of any electrical wiring, f) the installation, alteration or repair of any plumbing not included within the terminology or provisions of the water and sewer connection and extension ordinance of the City of Romulus, g) the moving of any building or structure which is of a permanent nature whether such permanent structure is to be relocated upon the same lot or tract of land or whether the use of any public street, alley, or boulevard is required in the process of such moving, h) the construction or erection of any marquee, canopy or other projection, whether freestanding or constructed as a project from any existing building or structure within the City of Romulus, i) changing the established grade level of any lot or tract of land, j) the temporary obstruction of any street or sidewalk required by any building operation, k) the construction or installation of all above or below the ground storage tanks, vaults or containers, l) the erection of any fence, wall or other enclosure, m) the installation of any boilers, furnaces or pressure vessels or heating elements of any type or description used for the heating of all or any portion of any private or public building, n) the installation of any air conditioning or any equipment designed for air conditioning, refrigeration, and mechanical ventilation, o) the installation of driveway culverts.

Where there has been a willful failure to obtain a proper permit, before commencing work, the fee for such permit, when issued, shall be double the regular fee as established by the City of Romulus and such willful failure shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

Section 113.3 BY WHOM APPLICATION IS MADE: is hereby repealed and in its place the following is ordained:

Section 113.1 BY WHOM APPLICATION IS MADE: Application for a permit shall be made by the owner of any residential structure if, and only if, at the time of application, he shall submit to the Department of Building and Safety an affidavit that he occupies or intends to occupy said residential structure. Any applicant for any other permit except for work of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature costing less than the sum of $200.00 shall, in the case of any residential structure, be a builder or contractor, engineer, or architect licensed by the State of Michigan.

Section 113.6 PLOT DIAGRAM: shall be modified and amended by the addition of the following language: Section 113.6 PLOT DIAGRAM: The director shall be empowered to waive the foregoing requirement concerning grades in building and alteration work unless, by the nature of such construction, grades are to be altered or the follow of surface waters in any manner impaired or altered.

In addition to the foregoing, the Director may require a topographical survey with the signature and seal of a registered civil engineer or land surveyor in any building situation in which it is apparent that by the extensive nature of the work or radical alteration of grades the flow of surface waters will be altered, reversed, or in any manner modified.

Section 114.2 SUSPENSION OF PERMIT: Said section as contained in the BOCA Basic Code is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 114.2 SUSPENSION OF PERMIT: Any permit shall become invalid if the authorized work is suspended or abandoned for a period of six (6) months after the commencement of such work.

No person shall do any work pursuant to a building permit after its expiration date, which expiration date is computed according to the following schedule:

- a. Single residence - eight (8) months.
- b. Alterations or additions to a residence - six (6) months.
- c. New residential garages or alterations thereto - six (6) months.
- d. Sidewalks, side drives, approaches - six (6) months.
- e. Two-story multiple dwellings - one (1) year, unless, in the opinion of the director, the multiple project is of such magnitude that one (1) year is insufficient for the completion thereof, in which event said Director, in his discretion, may issue a two (2) year permit.
- f. Any high-rise building of any type of classification or any industrial construction or commercial building - two (2) years, unless, in the opinion of the director, said two year period is insufficient to complete the project in which event he may extend the permit for such reasonable time as in his opinion the owner, contractor or other person lawfully constructing the same may be allowed such additional time as may be required having due regard to diligent progress upon such construction project.

Section 114.9 NOTICE OF START: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 114.9 NOTICE OF REQUIRED INSPECTION: At least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of required inspections under or pursuant to a building permit shall be given to the building official. It shall likewise be the duty of the holder of every permit to notify the building and safety division of the time when any construction will be ready for inspection by giving the street address, permit number, and type of inspection required.

a. BUILDINGS A minimum of 7 called inspections are hereby required for all buildings with basements. In the case of buildings without basements only 5 of such inspections are required, it being hereby determined that inspections No 2 and No 3 will not be required on buildings without basements.

- a. BUILDINGS A minimum of 7 called inspections are hereby required for all buildings with basements. In the case of buildings without basements only 5 of such inspections are required, it being hereby determined that inspections No 2 and No 3 will not be required on buildings without basements.
- No. 1 - As soon as the footings and outside drains are in place or when open trench and pier footings are ready to pour.
- No. 2 - When the basement walls are grade high or up to the first floor line before plastering the outside basement walls.
- No. 3 - When the outside of the basement wall is plastered and waterproofed and washed gravel, stone or slag is installed over the drain tile but before back-filling.
- No. 4 - When all structural members are in place and rough plumbing, heating, and wiring are installed.
- No. 5 - After inside drain tile is in place but before the same is covered in any way.
- No. 6 - When the basement floor is rough graded with gravel or sand and tamped before pouring concrete floor.
- No. 7 - Final inspection is called for when the building is completed but before the same is occupied.

Section 118.2 NEW CONSTRUCTION AND ALTERATIONS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 118.2 NEW CONSTRUCTION AND ALTERATIONS: All fees for building permits shall be based on the volume of the structure, or as otherwise prescribed by resolution of the council of the City of Romulus.

Section 118.3 MOVING OF BUILDINGS: is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 118.3 MOVING OF BUILDINGS: The fee for a building permit for the removal of a building or structure from one lot to another or to a new location on the same lot shall be established by council resolution which shall take into account the distance of the proposed move, the estimated cost of moving, the cost of new foundations, and all work necessary to place the building or structure in its completed condition in the new location.

Section 118.4 DEMOLITION: is hereby repealed and in its place the following is ordained:

Section 118.4 DEMOLITION: The fee for a permit for the demolition of a building or structure shall be at such rate as shall be established by the resolution of the council of the City of Romulus having regard for the volume of the building or structure to be destroyed. In unusual cases where the structure to be destroyed is in close proximity to another building or where the volume of demolition is immediately adjacent to any public way or thoroughfare the Building Official under such circumstances shall be authorized to establish a fee in addition to the fee adopted by resolution, which, if challenged, shall be subject to the approval of the city council.

Section 118.4a BONDS FOR THE MOVING OR DEMOLITION OF BUILDINGS OR FOR LAND GRADING: In addition to the fees herein prescribed for a building or structures to be moved or demolished or where the grades of land are to be changed, the applicant for such permit shall be required to post with the City of Romulus a bond in amount sufficient to guarantee completion of the work called for by the terms of such permit as may be established by ordinance of the City of Romulus, or by the Building Official in the event that no such ordinance or resolution exists.

Section 120.1 NEW BUILDINGS: Section 120.1 is hereby repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 120.1 NEW BUILDINGS: No building hereafter erected shall be used or occupied in whole or in part until all inspections required by this code or any amendments thereto have been made and a certificate of use and occupancy shall have been issued by the building official. It shall be unlawful for any person to occupy or to place another person in occupancy of any premises constructed under any such permit either as tenant, land contract purchaser, grantee or otherwise until a certificate of occupancy has been issued under the terms of the within section. Before a certificate of occupancy shall be issued, the contractor of any new building shall establish at least a rough surface grade for the front, sides and entire rear yards of the premises upon which such new structure is located in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance. Such grade at the front of the building shall be at least 1.5 per cent above the crown of the road to the building line, and the grade at the rear shall slope away from the building in such manner as it will harmonize with the adjacent land grades and provide adequate drainage for the construction site.

Where rough grading cannot be established by reason of inclement weather at the time a certificate of occupancy is requested a bond in the sum of $250.00 or in such other sum as the director shall determine to adequately insure compliance with the rough grading requirements of this section shall be posted with the City of Romulus.

In addition thereto the building director shall determine before issuance of a certificate of occupancy that surface water from the rough grade to be established will not be permitted to flow on adjacent property, that proposed perimeter grades shall be equal to or lower than existing elevations of adjacent property, that stagnant water ponding will not result from the rough grade as proposed, that where possible the drainage pattern will be from the rear lot to the street and that the minimum grade from the structure to the front property line shall not be less than one (1 percent) per cent, the normal maximum grade shall not exceed two (2 percent) per cent, where reverse flow from the rear of the structure to the rear lot line is required, the minimum grade shall be one (1 percent) per cent and the maximum grade shall be three (3 percent) per cent and in the event existing adjacent elevations to perimeter lots result in more than a three (3 percent) per cent slope from the structure to the rear property line, the lot or tract of land will be graded from the structure toward the rear at a maximum slope of two (2 percent) per cent to a point, then the remaining difference in elevation shall be at the rate of one (1) foot vertical to four (4) feet horizontal and such bank shall be sodded. The toe of this bank shall not extend into an easement proposed along the rear lot line. In addition thereto the minimum longitudinal slope along the rear lot line shall be 0.60 feet per 100 feet.

Section 120.3 EXISTING BUILDINGS: is repealed in its entirety and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 120.3 EXISTING BUILDINGS: Existing buildings shall be any building actually constructed or started under a properly issued building permit previous to the adoption of this code, and also all buildings erected on land annexed to the city after the adoption of this ordinance, except that a frame building shall not be considered as an existing building when damaged to the extent of fifty (50 percent) per cent or more of its value by fire, collapse, or decay, and any other building similarly damaged to the extent of seventy-five (75 percent) per cent of its value shall not be considered as an existing building.

Also, any building altered, repaired, rebuilt or to be rebuilt, altered, or modified at a cost of more than fifty (50 percent) per cent of its value shall not be regarded as an existing building.

Section 122.3 VIOLATION PENALTIES: is hereby repealed and in, its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 122.3 VIOLATION - PENALTIES: Any person who shall violate a provision of the Basic Code or shall fail to comply with any of the requirements thereof or who shall erect, construct, alter or repair a building or structure in violation of an approved plan or directive of the building official, or of a permit or certificate issued under the provisions of the Basic Code, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment not exceeding 90 days or both such fine and imprisonment. Each day that a violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

Section 123.0 STOP WORK ORDER: is repealed and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 123.0 POWER TO STOP WORK: Section 123.1 NOTICE TO OWNER: Said section, as the same appears in the BOCA Code is hereby repealed in its entirety and in its place and stead the following is ordained:

Section 123.1 POWER TO STOP WORK: Whenever building operations requiring a permit are being performed without a permit, in the absence of a notice of specifications, application or permit, if permit has been obtained, or if any of the work is being performed in violation of any section of this Code, the director shall order the work stopped at once without the necessity of further notice, and shall post a written statement to that effect upon the premises. At the written request of the director, the Wayne County Sheriff or any enforcement officer of the City of Romulus shall enforce such order and any person or persons found working upon such building or other structures shall be deemed in violation of this Code and to be disorderly persons. It shall be a violation of this Code to remove, deface, or cover over such notice to stop work without the express permission of the department of building and safety.

Section 123.1a. POWER TO STOP WORK ON LAND UNDER CONDEMNATION: Whenever a building permit has been issued involving certain land in the City, and prior or subsequent thereto a determination has been made by appropriate resolution of the Council to condemn such land for a public purpose, the director shall order the WORK of constructing such building STOPPED at once, and shall post a written notice to that effect upon the premises indicating that the land is under condemnation. Such STOP WORK notice shall continue in force and effect until removed by an authorized official of the City or until such condemnation proceedings are terminated by a final adjudication or otherwise. Any person found working upon such building or other structures after such notice has been posted and while it is in force and effect shall be deemed to be in violation of this Code and to be a disorderly person. It shall be a violation of this Code to remove, deface or cover up such notice to STOP WORK without permission of the Department. The Wayne County Sheriff or any enforcement officer of the City of Romulus shall enforce any such orders to STOP WORK.

Upon conviction of any person or persons of violating this provision of the Code, such persons shall be subject to the penalties as set forth in Section 123.3

Section 123.1b. POWER TO ORDER CHANGES: Whenever the Building Official shall find that any building or other structure has been altered, changed, or modified without authority from the condition in which it was at the time a Certificate of Occupancy was issued, or if a change in occupancy is made and the change is of such nature as to place the building in such a condition as to violate any of the provisions of this Code or of the State Housing Code, the Department shall send to the owner, or if such owner cannot be found, to his agent, a written notice of such facts and shall direct him to make such changes as shall be necessary to comply with the provisions of this Code, except that in the case of buildings classified in this Code as existing buildings, the maximum requirements shall not be greater than the requirements of the ordinances in force at the time this Code is adopted, as modified by the specific requirements of this Code as to existing buildings. Should the owner or his agent fail to comply with such a notice within 30 days thereafter, the Building Official shall revoke the Certificate of Occupancy and shall not renew the same until the necessary changes have been made.

Proper service of notices as required in this Section and in Section 124.1 shall be personal service upon the owner of record if he shall be within the City. If he shall not be within the City, such service may be had upon any person accustomed to collect rents upon the property in question who may be in the City, and in the absence of such a one, upon the tenant of the premises. Should such premises be vacant, and the owner be not in the City, service will be sufficient when such a notice is sent by registered mail to the last known post office address of such owner or to the best address obtainable from the records of Wayne County. Whenever the owner, agent, or tenant is a corporation, service shall be upon the resident agent.

Section 123.1c. POWER TO REMOVE ABANDONED BUILDINGS: Whenever any building shall be abandoned or left unoccupied and become dilapidated, or become a fire hazard or menace by reasons of being a resort for irresponsible persons or trespassers, the Building Official shall order the owner or his agent to remove such building or place it in a habitable condition, and in case this is not done within 60 days thereafter, the Director shall petition the Circuit Court to declare such a building a nuisance and order it removed.

Section 124.0 UNSAFE BUILDINGS: Said section is hereby repealed and in its place the following is ordained:

Section 124.0 DANGEROUS BUILDINGS: Section 124.1 RIGHT OF CONDEMNATION: is hereby repealed in its entirety and in its place the following is ordained:

Section 124.1 DANGEROUS BUILDINGS AND ACTION THEREON: As used in this ordinance, "dangerous building" means any building or structure which has any of the following defects or is in any of the following conditions:

(a) Whenever any door, aisle, passageway, stairway or other means of exit does not conform to the approved fire code of the City of Romulus or State of Michigan, it shall be considered that such building or structure is a dangerous building.

(b) Whenever any portion has been damaged by fire, wind, flood, or by any other cause in such a manner that the structural strength or stability is appreciably less than it was before such catastrophe and is less than the minimum requirements of the Building Code of the City of Romulus for a new building or similar structure, purpose or location.

(c) Whenever any portion or member or appurtenance is likely to fall or to become detached or dislodged, or to collapse and thereby injure persons or damage property.

(d) Whenever any portion has settled to such an extent that walls or other structural portions have materially less resistance to than is required in the case of new construction by the Building Code of the City of Romulus.

(e) Whenever the building or structure or any part, because of dilapidation, deterioration, decay, faulty construction, or because of the removal or movement of some portion of the ground necessary for the purpose of supporting such building or portion thereof, or for other reason, is likely to partially or completely collapse, or some portion of the foundation or underpinning is likely to fail or give way.

(f) Whenever for any reason whatsoever the building or structure or any portion is manifestly unsafe for the purpose for which it is used.

(g) Whenever the building or structure has been so damaged by fire, wind or flood, or has become so dilapidated or deteriorated as to become an attractive nuisance to children who might play therein to their danger, or as to afford a harbor for vagrants, criminals or immoral persons, or as to enable persons to resort thereto for the purpose of committing a nuisance or unlawful or immoral acts.

(h) Whenever a building or structure used or intended to be used for dwelling purposes, because of dilapidation, decay, damage or faulty construction or arrangement or otherwise, is unsanitary or unfit for human habitation or is in a condition that is likely to cause sickness or disease when so determined by the health officer, or is likely to work injury to the health, safety or general welfare of those living within.

(i) Whenever any building becomes vacant, dilapidated and open at door or window, leaving the interior of the building exposed to the elements or accessible to entrance by trespassers.

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this ordinance, when the whole or any part of any building or structure is found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition, the Building Official shall issue a notice of the dangerous and unsafe condition.

2. Such notice shall be directed to each owner of, or party in interest in the alleged dangerous building in whose name the property appears on the last local tax assessment records.

3. The notice shall specify the time and place of a hearing on the condition of the building or structure, at which time and place the person to whom the notice is directed shall have the opportunity show cause why the building or structure should not be ordered to be demolished or otherwise made safe.

4. The hearing officer shall be appointed by the Mayor to serve at his pleasure. The Building Official shall file a copy of the notice of the dangerous and unsafe condition with the hearing officer.

5. All noticees shall be in writing and shall be served upon the season to whom they are directed personally or, in lieu of personal service, may be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to such owner or party in interest at the address shown on the tax records, at least 10 days before the date of the hearing described in the notice. If any person to whom a notice is directed is not personally served, in addition to mailing the notice, a copy thereof shall be posted upon a conspicuous part of the building or structure.

6. The hearing officer shall take testimony of the Building Official, the owner of the property and any interested party. The hearing officer shall render his decision, either closing the proceedings or ordering the building to be demolished or otherwise made safe.

7. If it is determined by the hearing officer that the building or structure should be demolished or otherwise made safe, he shall so order, fixing a time not to exceed 90 days from the date of the order for compliance therewith.

8. If the owner, or party in interest, fails to appear or neglects or refuses to comply with the order, the hearing officer shall file a report of his findings and a copy of his order with the City Council and request that the necessary action to take to demolish or otherwise make safe the building or structure. A copy of the findings and order of the hearing officer shall be served on the owner, or party in interest, in the manner prescribed above.

(k) The City Council shall fix a date for a hearing to review the findings and order of the hearing officer, and shall give notice to the owner or party in interest in the manner prescribed above of the time and place of the hearing. At the hearing the owner, or party in interest, shall be given the opportunity to show cause why the building should not be demolished or otherwise made safe and the City Council shall either approve, disapprove or modify the order for the demolition or making safe of the building or structure and shall direct the Building Official to comply with the order as approved or modified forthwith after 20 days after said Council hearing shall have passed.

(l) The cost of the demolition or making the building safe shall be a lien against the real property and shall be reported to the assessing officer of the City, who shall assess the cost against the property on which the building or structure is located.

(m) The owner or party in interest in whose name the property appears upon the last local tax assessment records shall be notified of the amount of such cost by first class mail at the address shown on the records. If he fails to pay the same within 30 days after mailing by the assessor of the notice of the amount thereof, the assessor shall add the same to the next tax roll of the City and the Same shall be collected in the same manner in all respects as provided by law for the collection of taxes by the City.

(n) If the Council orders that a building be demolished, the building Official shall determine the date for demolition and shall then notify the owner, or party in interest, thereof in the manner set forth above. Such notice shall request that the owner or party in interest remove any contents of the building which are of value to him if, on the date set for demolition, contents remain in the building which in the opinion of the Director are of more than nominal value, then the Building Official shall cause such contents to be removed from the building and stored for a period not to exceed 90 days. The owner, or party in interest, shall be notified that during the period of storage said contents may be claimed upon payment of a reasonable storage fee. Upon expiration of the storage period said contents shall be considered to be abandoned and may be disposed of by the usual method of disposal of abandoned property. The demolition charges to the owner, or party in interest, shall then be reduced by any amount the City receives for the sale of said abandoned property which is in excess of the City's expenses for removal and storage of same.

(o) An owner, agent or lessee aggrieved by any final decision or order of the City Council shall have 20 days to seek injunctive relief or otherwise appear, the decision of the City Council to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(p) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Department of Building and Safety from summarily making safe any condition, which in the judgment of the Building Official poses such an imminent hazard and threat to personal safety that abatement must occur before the time limits specified herein.

CITY OF ROMULUS CHAPTER VI, ARTICLE 1.5 AMENDMENTS TO THE ROMULUS BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE

WHEREAS, the BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE of 1970 as adopted by the City of Romulus in accordance with Section 14 of Act No. 230 of the Public Acts of 1974 is deemed by the City of Romulus, in certain particulars, to be inadequate in terms of protection to the property, lives, safety, health and welfare of the people of the City of Romulus;

WHEREAS, by the amendments hereinafter adopted, either in this Ordinance or in Ordinance subsequently enacted, it is the intention of the City of Romulus to provide additional and adequate safeguards to the people of the City of Romulus.

Short Title: Amendments to Building Code.
Section 1. Scope: The BOCA BASIC BUILDING CODE of 1970, as promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., together with the accumulative supplement dated 1973, as well as any and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., be, and the same are hereby amended in the following particulars:
Section 130.0 Building permits, bonds and city certification.

Section 130.1. BUILDING PERMIT PERFORMANCE BONDS: Upon application for any building permit, with those exceptions hereinafter noted, the applicant shall deposit with this application a building permit performance bond, consisting of cash, surety bond or letter of credit in an amount equal to fifty (50 percent) percent of the contract or construction price as set forth in such building permit application to guarantee that the applicant 1) satisfactorily completes the work called for by his application during the life of the permit and any extension thereof; and 2) remove or cause to be removed all debris, rubbish and trash from the building site; 3) that the applicant will establish ditches and culverts to properly drain the building area and reopen and reestablish any drainage that may have been interrupted by the building operation. All drains and culverts to be established shall be in accordance with the requirements and specifications of the Wayne County Road Commission when on county roads and by the office of the City Engineer and/or Building Department when on city streets or privately owned property adjacent to the building site. 4) That the applicant shall construct such site improvements as are necessary to comply with approved plans and specifications submitted with the application.

Section 130.2 RETURN OF BOND, FORFEIT: The above building performance bond shall be returned to the applicant after the final inspection and approval and the issuance of any and all final certificates of occupancy by the Department of Building and Safety and by the Wayne County Road Commission upon demand of applicant plus the necessary time required for the processing of the return of such bond.

Should any work called for in the foregoing section remain undone or should the holder of such permit fail, neglect or refuse for any reason to complete all work required in accordance with section 130.1 and the building code of the City of Romulus, as amended, within the time specified for the completion of performance, following written notice to the holder of the permit at the address shown upon the application for permit by certified mail, return receipt requested and by notification by certified mail of any surety or bank issuing any bond or letter of credit, the City of Romulus shall be empowered to advertise for bids for such completion and to complete the same, the cost thereof to be paid by the surety company, bank or from cash deposited up to the full amount of such bond.

Section 131.0 CITY CERTIFICATION - INSPECTIONS: Section 131.1 OCCUPATION OR RE-OCCUPATION: It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to hereafter occupy or re-occupy or for any owner or agent thereof, to permit the occupation or re-occupation of any building or addition thereto, or part thereof, for any purpose, until a certificate of occupancy has been issued by the building and safety division showing compliance with the City Building Code, except L-3 dwellings occupancies shall conform with Chapter VI, Article 3, Minimum Housing standards of the City of Romulus. The certificate of occupancy so issued shall state that the occupancy complies with all the provisions of the within ordinance, as amended. This section shall not apply to any occupancy in existence at the time of the adoption of the ordinance. Should any building or addition thereto or part thereof be licensed under the annual licensing requirements of Chapter VI, Article 2 of the City of Romulus, the certificate of occupancy called for by this section shall be issued as a matter of course and without cost to the owner or proposed occupant upon production of a current and unrevoked license as required by the terms of said ordinance.

Section 131.2 SALE OF DEVELOPED REAL PROPERTY: It shall be unlawful for any owner, real estate firm, broker or salesman to hereafter consummate a sale of developed real property until such owner, real estate firm, broker or salesman has complied with the following requirements:

a) Secured a Certificate of Occupancy as required by b) The proposed purchaser has made application for a building permit to the Department of Building and Safety; or

c) The owner, real estate firm, broker or salesman has requested an inspection by the Department of Building and Safety of said developed real property to determine its fitness for occupancy; following which the proposed purchaser must acknowledge to the department, in writing, his awareness of any deficiencies or areas of non-compliance with the building code of the City of Romulus and his willingness, notwithstanding such deficiencies to purchase the property in question.

Nothing in this section shall permit occupancy of said developed real estate until there has been complete compliance with the provisions of section 131.1.

Section 131.3 APPLICATION: An application for the city certifications inspections and/or certificates of occupancy required by the preceding section shall be filed with the Department of Building and Safety containing the minimum following required information:

a) The number of occupants who will occupy the premises;

b) The names and addresses of both purchaser and seller or landlord and tenant;

c) The proposed use to be made of the premises;

d) The address of the premises sold or leased.

Such application shall be accompanied by the fee for such application as shall be set by council resolution which shall be paid to the Department of Building and Safety.

Upon receipt of the application and fee, such premises shall be inspected by a representative of the Department of Building and Safety within five (5) days and, if approved, a certificate of occupancy shall issue.

Sections 131.1, 131.2 and this section shall apply to all buildings of every type.

Section 2. SAVINGS CLAUSE: That nothing in this Ordinance or in the Building Code hereby adopted shall be construed to affect any suit or proceeding impending in any court or any rights acquitted or liability incurred or any cause or causes of action acquired or existing under any act or ordinance hereby repealed by this Ordinance; nor shall any just or legal right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired or affected by this Ordinance.

Section 3. SEVERABILITY: Should any section, clause or provision of this ordinance be declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the section, clause or provision of this Ordinance declared by such court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid.

Section 4. EFFECTIVE DATE: The City Council recognizes that the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the City of Romulus is paramount and of an emergency nature and, therefore, the provisions of this Ordinance shall take immediate effect upon publication of the same in the manner provided by law.

This Ordinance was duly adopted by the Council of the city of Romulus on the 4th day of November, 1974.

AYES: Lee, Coleman, Block, Stewart, Trumble, Oakley, McAnally.

ABSENT: None.

I, LEONARD J. FOLMAR, the duly qualified, elected and acting clerk of the City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the proceedings taken and the Ordinance adopted by the Council of the City of Romulus at a meeting held on the 4th day of November, 1974, the original of which Ordinance is on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk

ATTEST: Terry L. Troutt, Mayor
Within forty five (45) days after the publication of any ordinance duly passed by the Council, a petition may be presented to the Council protesting against such ordinance continuing in effect. Said petition shall contain the text of such ordinance and shall be signed by not less than six (6 percent) percent of the registered electors registered at the last preceding election at which a Mayor of the City was elected. ROMULUS COMMUNITY SCHOOLS FINANCIAL REPORT 1973-74

Board of Education
Romulus Community Schools
Romulus, Michigan 48174

We have examined the accompanying balance sheets of the various funds of the Romulus Community Schools as of June 30, 1974 and the related statements of fund balance, revenue and expenditures and cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the various funds of the Romulus Community Schools as of June 30, 1974 and the results of their operations for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

AMC BUYER PROTECTION PLAN.
1. A simple, strong guarantee:
When you buy a new 1975 AMC car from an American Motors dealer, American Motors Corporation guarantees to you that, except for tires, it will pay for the repair or replacement of any part it supplies that is defective in material or workmanship. This guarantee is good for 12 months from the date the car is first used or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first. All we require is that the car be properly maintained and cared for under normal use and service in the fifty United States or Canada and that guaranteed repairs or replacements be made by an American Motors dealer.
2. A free loaner car from almost every one of our dealers if guaranteed repairs take overnight.
3. Special Trip Interruption Protection.
4. And a toll-free hot line to AMC Headquarters.

RELOCATING... DOESN'T HAVE TO BE DISLOCATING

We belong to RELO, a national real estate organization whose job it is to relocate you physically without relocating you mentally.

And this we can do. Through our association with RELO, we can help relocate you to at least 6,500 different communities throughout the country.

All you have to do is contact any one of our offices, and we'll take it from there. But remember one thing. If we can relocate you from coast to coast with a minimum of woe, imagine what we can do anywhere around Detroit and its environs.

At Belleville crisis center

Volunteers dream of expanded facility

By M.C. RADEMACHER
Of The Enterprise Staff

"The Number" in Belleville would like to be more than just a number and a voice on the end of the telephone line.

The director of the crisis call-in center dreams of a day when the services offered can expand to include a drop-in center where people can come in with their problems and questions, or gather for rap groups.

The two roadblocks to this plan — finding a place and paying its rent — are the only things standing in the way right now, said director Kathy Calvillo. But those obstacles are quite enough to keep the expansion in the planning stage.

"At this point we haven't found a place," she explained. "The board is willing to open one up, so it's eventual."

"OH, WE'VE BEEN able to locate places, but then the rent has been too high."

Since the operations of "The Number" are funded entirely from community donations and fund-raising sales and events, financing is an important consideration in the plans for the drop-in center. The facility now being used is too small for face-to-face counseling. Mrs. Calvillo said, so callers cannot come in for counseling even if they want to.

"The Number" operates daily for residents of Belleville, Romulus, Van Buren Township, Sumpter Township, Huron and Ypsilanti who are in need of crisis counseling that is confidential and anonymous. Callers are not asked to give their names, and volunteer crisis workers do not give their names except an occasional first name to personalize the conversation. Counselors help callers talk out problems, decide on alternative actions they can take to solve their difficulty and sometimes make referrals for more extensive and specific help.

The subject of referrals poses a problem for "The Number" counselors, Mrs. Calvillo said, because of the lack of any mental health facilities in the area.

"THERE IS A real absence of community mental health services," she explained. "The problem in Belleville is that there is no place for them to go. 'The Number' is pretty well it."

That is another reason that expansion of the services at "The Number" is desirable, she added.

Mrs. Calvillo and the director of a Romulus hotline have talked to the director of the Community Mental Health Services for Wayne County. He told them that it would be two years before a mental facility even could be considered for the area.

"The Number" which is 699-2039, is staffed by 53 volunteers in addition to the full-time paid position of director and two part-time positions of secretary and coordinator of youth activities. A board of directors composed of community residents runs the business of the center.

WHILE THEY WAIT and look for a location for the drop-in center, the center continues its business of providing phone counseling for the community. Volunteers work 4-hour shifts weekly, and volunteer training session are held about four times a year in an effort to maintain a fresh staff.

"Organizations are kept alive by new people coming in," she emphasized. "I don't ever want to have a tired, bored staff person on the line."

Other jobs that volunteers can perform, if they don't want to be a counselor, are numerous, ranging from fund-raising to planning activities.

One of the unique features of "The Number" is the age spectrum that is represented by volunteers. Mrs. Calvillo estimated that about half of the counselors are under 30, while the other half is 30 or older, a major difference between it and some other centers that are staffed primarily by young people.

THEY HANDLE calls relating to drugs, family or personal problems, medical information questions and other crisis situations. Anonymity is very important in keeping the callers' confidence, and the fact that the counseling is over the phone can be a positive factor for the caller.

"When a person calls 'The Number', he has control over the call," she explained. "He can hang up any time, he maintains control."

If drop-in facilities were established, call-in lines still would be in operation, offering callers face-to-face or phone options.

Mrs. Calvillo became director of "The Number" in May, and she works to insure that the staff is trained adequately and the center runs smoothly. Formerly employed at a free clinic in California that handled similar crisis problems on a much larger scale, she has hopes that "The Number" can expand to offer better mental health facilities in Belleville and the surrounding area.

Volunteers and staff already have started to dream of the numerous ways they could utilize the space and convenience of the center once it is moved to handle visitors. Being the only mental health service in the city, they are just waiting for the chance to offer even more.

Rawsonville School 'Book Fair' a success

MOTHER-DAUGHTER SELECTIONS—Two area mothers and their young daughters showed similar interests as they browsed through the varied reading materials at the third annual Rawsonville School Book Fair. At left, Mrs. Mary Byrne and her daughter, Margaret, look over the children's literature while (at right) Mrs. Earl Tipper and daughter, Melissa, consider buying a few books for Christmas giving. The sale was sponsored by the Mothers Library Committee.

The Mothers Library Committee of Rawsonville School conducted its third annual "Book Fair" last week. Held in conjunction with the fall parent-teacher conferences, the three-day sale included thousands of books. General chairman Sandy Askew explained that every phase of reading was covered including children's literature, adult fiction, how-to references, biographies, non-fiction and even games and puzzles.

Each year, she said, they do business with a Ludington firm who supplies the books on a consignment basis giving the sellers a 25 per cent profit. Proceeds from the event are used to replenish books in the school library.

Assisting Mrs. Askew in the fair were Myrna Bos, Muriel Frettenborough, Jackie Scalzo, Doris Beckley, Barbara Washon, Wendy Dixon and Gail Thompson.

Hanging planter how-to shown to garden club

The Nov. 4 meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs.

Lynne Hamilton on E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, with 23 members in attendance.

Mrs. William Hennells conducted the business meeting at which one new member, Mrs. Thurston Jahr, was welcomed. The group voted to accept the resignation of one member and the transfer of another from active to associate membership.

Program chairman, Mrs. James Kause, introduced the speaker for the day, Mrs. Paul Homan (one of the club's newer members), who demonstrated how to make a jute hanging planter.

The next meeting, Dec. 2, will be an international Christmas tea at the home of Mrs. Earl Smith.

Bring home the bacon

"Bringing home the bacon" today means bringing home the paycheck, but originally, the phrase literally meant bringing home the pig itself. The phrase comes from the practice at rural fairs of awarding the pig to the winner of the greased pig contest. The person catching the slippery hog was actually "bringing home the bacon."

Just like us, doctors have sleep problems

If you're seeking your physician's advice because you're having bouts with sleeplessness, it may interest you to know that he's likely to have more sleep problems than you, advises Sally Ames, sleep consultant to a mattress company in Chicago.

Reporting on a survey in the journal Medical Opinion, Miss Ames notes: "While as many as 15 per cent of Americans may suffer sleep disorders of varying degrees, medical doctors seem to have a higher rate of sleeplessness than their patients."

Of the 892 doctors surveyed, about 25 per cent said they get four to six hours of sleep on the average; over a third complained that they seem to get too little sleep; and only 3 per cent said they can routinely get more than eight hours of slumber.

AND IF YOU, as a layman, can't determine how much sleep is sufficient for the average individual, neither can the doctors. Some doctors are satisfied by six to eight hours of sleep while others view this amount of sleep as insufficient.

According to the survey, as many doctors suffer from insomnia as do their patients. How does the physician heal himself? His remedies for his own sleeplessness are no different from those he prescribes for his patients.

Close to 50 per cent of the doctors reported that they turn on television or read a book or medical journal. Another 20 per cent take a sleep-inducing medication.

THE REST? According to the study, they try everything from a glass of warm milk or a hot toddy to a cocktail or "counting sheep." Others say that light exercise helps. Some report that hot showers put them to sleep, even though most doctors tell their patients to take warm (never hot) showers or baths.

One of the things most experts agree on as a requirement for sound sleep is a good mattress that offers surface comfort plus firm inner support.

WOW! ALL MY FAVORITES—Thousands of books were on display last week at the Rawsonville School book fair. From the look on Dena Thompson's face, we'd guess she found many of her favorites. A student at the school, Dena was among the many parents and students who enjoyed browsing through the selections.

Retirement party honors Mrs. Akers

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

On Nov. 6, Mrs. Juanita Akers of Liberty Street was a special guest of 11 retired teachers from Edgemont Elementary School at a luncheon held at Weber's in Ann Arbor. The occasion was a belated get-together for Juanita who had retired from the cafeteria service last June. They surprised her with a special gift.

home at East Kingston, N.H.

Mrs. Clayton Saunders of Liberty Street attended a family dinner get-together last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Saunders of East Detroit. The occasion was a farewell for the Saunderses and his Mother, Mrs. Lillian Moore of Charlevoix, who were leaving the next Wednesday for St. Petersburg, Fla. where they plan to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mericle of Denton Road were Sunday dinner guests of the former's sister and husband, the Paul Hoyts of Clinton, and attended the Coin and Stamp Show at Adrian.

Lloyd Orr is now convalescing at his home on Harmony Lane, Belleville, after being able to leave St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor last Friday following surgery the previous week.

A reception and dinner for Marjorie Barton of Utica, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, O.E.S., was held at Nardo's Country Club in Mt. Clemens, Nov. 2. Members of Belleville Chapter, Edna Florian, Roberta Pond, Elda Bohl and Vincent Goodnuff, attended.

Three couples plan springtime weddings

Harding-Clough

Sandra Deborah Harding of Romulus and James Clough III of Detroit are engaged and planning to be married March 1. The First Baptist Church of Romulus has been reserved for their 1975 nuptial date.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Harrell of 11429 Moore, Romulus. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Cobb of 11700 Montrose, Detroit. Both young people are employees of Kelsey-Hayes in Romulus.

Miss Harding is a 1971 graduate of Romulus High School. The prospective

Smith-Wade

An April 12 wedding is being planned by Connie Fay Smith and Dale Allen Wade, both of Belleville.

The bride-elect, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Smith of 43566 Crowley, Belleville, is employed at Holiday Inn.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Belleville High School, is employed at Belle Mobil Homes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wade of 46049 Chatsworth, Belleville.

Handy 'cuts guide' eliminates guessing on pork varieties

Shoppers will no longer have to guess about which cut of pork is the best value when making their weekly shopping decisions. The Pork Industry Group has developed a handy guide to pork cuts which is complete with cooking instructions for a wide variety of both smoked and fresh pork cuts.

Cost per serving is the important consideration which consumers should make in determining value of meat cuts. Since some cuts are boneless, they offer more serving per pound and in many cases could cost less per serving even though their cost per pound is greater than their bone-in counterparts. The new shopping tool gives the number of servings which can be expected from various cuts of both boneless and bone-in pork products. With this information, the consumer can easily use the "slide-rule" feature of the guide to figure the cost per serving.

To receive your copy of the Pork Buying & Cooking Guide send 50 cents in coin to PORK INDUSTRY GROUP, Department P, P. O. Box 11168, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

State Federation president addresses local BPW Club

The monthly meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) was held at South Junior High School Nov. 4. Twenty-eight members and 11 guests sat down to a turkey dinner prior to the business session.

Guest speaker was Phyllis Harrison, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. She said, "Women in 1974 can now choose to be chosen; chosen for the abilities inherent in the individual, chosen for the contributions they can make."

She also stated, "Membership in our organization is the key in the door of the future. We are the constructors—through the efforts of members like you, all people are helped. The constructive programs we begin and continue enrich member and non-member alike because good cannot be contained within. It overflows into your jobs and your community affecting those about you."

HER SPEECH emphasized the need for increased membership and women's awareness as citizens of this country, as individuals and as an organization.

Reports given by various committees included "Business Women's Week" which was another successful chapter written in the club's history. The annual blood bank project reported that 135 persons volunteered to donate. Twenty people had to be deferred so that a total of 115 pints were received, surpassing the amount received in 1973.

Glassware has Tiffany look

Q. "I have a signed 'Quezal' vase. Please, identify it." — Elsie, Charlotte, N.C.

A. The Quezal Art and Decorating Co. of Brooklyn, N.Y., was established by partners Bach and Johnson in 1901. They previously had worked at the Tiffany glass works. Their lusted glass objects bore a rather striking similarity to the glass created by their former employer. Mr. Tiffany was understandably annoyed. The factory was called Quezal in honor of the Central American quetzal bird. They remained active until 1925.

Pork, apples mean autumn

The story of autumn might not be a best seller among Western Wayne County residents, but many of our fall traditions have their origins in the pioneer days of our country.

The autumn harvest is the horn of plenty for this country, representing some part of our history including the foods first brought across the Atlantic by the European settlers.

Appreciation of these "imported foods" and customs that came with them led to our various harvest-time festivals.

Pork and apples were among the first food immigrants...

England's Harvest Home gave way to the Pilgrims' Thanksgiving and more recently Germany's Oktoberfest has inspired the annual Porkfest.

Pork and apples were among the first food immigrants. Both promptly became naturalized American edibles. Somehow the descendants of the eight porkers taken to the Indies by Christopher Columbus found their way to the United States and onto the dinner plate.

While pork was making itself well entrenched in the American cuisine, apples were making their presence known.

Autumn is the time when the widest selection of the fruit is available. Pork also is available since supplies build on a seasonally basis.

The timing couldn't be better for creating happy table combinations of apples and pork. Not only are they delicious, they also contribute to your health.

Try these combinations of pork and apples to brighten up your weekly bill of fare.

HIMMEL UND ERDE (Heaven and Earth)

8 medium potatoes
1½ cups boiling water
1½ teaspoons salt
6 medium-sized tart cooking apples
½ pound bacon, cut in 1-inch pieces
2 medium onions, sliced crosswise
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoons vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon snipped parsley
Pare potatoes, cut in 1-inch cubes and place in large frying-pan or Dutch oven. Add water and 1½ teaspoons salt, cover tightly and boil 15 minutes. Core apples (pare if desired) and cut in sixths. Place on top of potatoes and continue cooking, covered, for 10 minutes or until potatoes and apples are tender.

Pan-fry bacon, remove from pan and reserve. Add onions to bacon drippings, cook until lightly browned, remove from pan and reserve. Pour off all but ¼ cup bacon drippings. Drain potatoes and apples; reserve ¼ cup liquid and add to bacon drippings. Add sugar, vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt and the pepper and cook two minutes, stirring to blend. Add onion and sweet-sour sauce to potatoes and apples and stir lightly to combine. Top with reserved bacon and parsley.

Yields 8 servings, 1¼ cup each.

Pork Loin Roast

(4 to 6-pound pork loin roast)
Place roast, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert roast meat thermometer so the bulb is centered in the thickest part. Make certain bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water; do not cover. Roast in a slow oven 325 degrees until the thermometer registers 170 degrees. Allow 30 to 35 minutes per pound for a center loin roast, 35 to 40 minutes per pound for a half loin; 40 to 45 minutes per pound for a smaller blade or sirloin roast. (Total time — 2 to 3 hours.)

Have the meat retailer loosen the chine (back) bone by sawing across the rib bones. When roasting is finished, the back bone can be removed easily by running the carving knife along the edge of the roast before the meat is placed on the platter to be carved.

Johnny Applesseed Squares

½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
1½ cups rolled oats (uncooked)
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
½ cup lard, melted
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups pared, chopped apples
1 tablespoon lemon juice
one-third cup raisins one-third cup chopped walnuts
Confectioners' Icing, if desired

Sift together flour, salt and soda. Stir in oats and brown sugar; gradually add melted lard and eggs, stirring with a fork until mixture is crumbly. Firmly press half of mixture into bottom of greased 9-inch square baking pan.

Mix apples and lemon juice; stir in raisins and walnuts. Place apple mixture in even layer over crumb base. Roll remaining oats mixture between 2 sheets of wax paper to form a 9-inch square. Remove top sheet of paper and invert dough over filling, pressing down lightly. Remove paper. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) for 30 minutes. Drizzle confectioners' icing over top; cool before cutting into squares. Yields 12 to 16 squares.

HARVEST-TIME COMBO — Apples and pork have teamed up to provide a delicious harvest-time treat. Serve up a salad of potatoes, apples and other vegetables with a pork loin roast. Top off the meal with Johnny Applesseed squares. It's a feast sure to please even the fussiest of eaters.

Sure to please

Meat-fruit combo is hearty meal

Teaming up pork, whether it be in the form of sausage, ham or chops, can prove to be a dinner treat for the family.

Try a tempting plate of smoked sausage and apples on your family or serve up a hearty helping of ham and fried apples. And sure to please will be pork steaks with an apple dressing.

PLANKED SMOKED SAUSAGE AND APPLES

1½ pounds smoked sausage (large link)
3 to 4 medium-sized tart red apples
½ cup water
3 cups hot seasoned mashed potatoes
Maple syrup
Paprika

Cut apples, crosswise into slices about ½ inch thick and place in large frying-pan. Add water, cover tightly and simmer 5 minutes or until just tender. Remove apples, add sausage and cook slowly, covered, 15 minutes. Pour off drippings and brown sausage on one side.

Prick sausage in two or three places and place on oiled wooden plank; browned side down. Tube or spoon mashed potatoes around edge of board. Fill in spaces between sausages and potatoes with apple slices so top of board is entirely covered. Brush apple slices lightly with maple syrup.

Place in broiler so top of sausage is 5 to 6 inches from the heat and broil for 10 minutes. Sprinkle potatoes with paprika. Makes four to six servings.

HAM AND FRIED APPLES

1 "fully-cooked" smoked ham slice, cut ¾ inch thick
3 medium-sized tart cooking apples
1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 tablespoons flour
Lard
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 can (5 and one-third ounces) evaporated milk

Place ham slice in lightly greased heavy large frying-pan and cook slowly 14 to 16 minutes, turning occasionally. Place ham slice on hot platter and keep warm.

Core apples and cut thin slices from both ends. Cut each apple crosswise into 3 slices, dip cut surfaces in lemon juice and dredge in flour. Add enough lard to drippings in frying-pan to make 2 tablespoons fat. Pan-fry apple slices on 1 side and sprinkle with brown sugar. Turn, pan-fry until lightly browned on second sides and place on platter with ham.

Add evaporated milk to pan dripping and cook slowly, stirring constantly for 3 to 5 minutes or until thickened. Serve sauce with ham and apples. Makes four to six servings.

PORK STEAKS WITH APPLE DRESSING

3 pork blade steaks, cut ½ to ¾ inch thick (approximately 2 pounds)
1 tablespoon lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped onion
5 cups ½-inch dry bread cubes

2 cups chopped apple
¼ cup raisins
2 tablespoons apple jelly
2 tablespoons water
1 teaspoon herb seasoning
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon orange peel. Lightly brown steaks on both sides in lard or drippings, remove to absorbent paper and season with 1 teaspoon salt and the pepper. Add celery and onion and cook until onion is transparent, stirring occasionally. Stir in bread cubes, apple, raisins, apple jelly and water. Sprinkle with herb seasoning, salt and orange peel; stir to mix.

Place dressing in roasting pan or baking dish (13-by-9-by-2-inch). Place pork steaks on top of dressing, cover tightly with aluminum foil and bake in slow oven (325 degrees) one hour, or until meat is tender. Uncover and continue baking five minutes longer. Makes four to six servings.

one-third cup packed dark brown sugar

Honey-Orange Glaze
½ cup packed dark brown sugar
¼ cup honey
¼ cup orange juice

Baked Ham Glaze
½ cup packed brown sugar
1½ teaspoons salad mustard
2 teaspoons water

To prepare the ham score the fat diagonally and insert a whole clove at the center of each diamond that is formed by scoring. Cook over indirect medium heat for 9 minutes per pound. Thirty minutes before the ham is done brush on the glaze of your choice and 15 minutes before removing ham, garnish with pineapples and cherries and glaze for the last time.

Glazes perk up any ham dinner

If your family gives you that "hohum" look when you put ham on the table, your ham needs help. Two things can do the trick and brighten those tired ham appetites around the table. First is barbecuing in a covered barbecue kettle to give the ham the rich, smoke-oven flavor that only outdoor cooking can achieve. A covered kettle helps seal in the natural juices and give the outside of the ham a crisp, brown texture. Second is to add one of a variety of glazes to encrust the ham with a distinct sweet or tangy taste. Try one or more of the following on your future hams.

Cranberry Glaze
1 cup mashed jellied cranberries

GRACIOUS DINING — In home remodeling, simplicity itself can often do more to warm the mood of a room or addition than many of the more complex modes often used by decorators. Here, a new 12 by 15-foot dining room ell addition built adjacent to the family kitchen and living room was

Or a real dud

Used house can be bargain

House shoppers in Western Wayne County should listen to the experts before making that big deal. While a used house can be a great bargain, specialists say it can also come with a host of built-in problems.

"One of the biggest advantages of an older house is that it generally gives you space for the money," said Jim Boyd, extension housing specialist at Michigan State University.

An older house may also represent a particular architectural style or characterize a historical period. It may offer you features like a formal dining room, hardwood floors or plaster walls that you could not afford in a new home.

BUYING AN older house usually means buying into an established neighborhood. The lot is landscaped, streets are in and property owners are not so likely to be saddled with unexpected assessments for roads, sidewalks and other improvements. You can easily check into schools, shopping, public transportation and neighborhood character, all of which may still be "on the drawing board" in a new housing development.

There may be another side to the established neighborhood, Boyd added. It may be deteriorating as rezoning, urban renewal or the transition from single family dwellings to rental units changes its whole face.

"The house itself may be full of problems," the specialist said. "Contrary to popular belief, houses were not necessarily built better 'in the good old days' than they're being built today."

Common problems include settling, which cracks walls, makes floors slant, makes doors and windows go out-of-square and pulls chimneys loose from the house. Older homes are also prone to leaky roofs, and inadequate wiring, plumbing and heating.

LOOK FOR CRACKS in plaster walls, interior or exterior walls that bulge or lean, Boyd continued. Check floors for dips and slants and try all the doors and windows. They should fit squarely in their frames and open and close easily without jamming.

Check also for signs of water damage from a leaky roof or basement. Be wary of a freshly painted basement, he said. Often new paint is just a coverup for recent signs of invading water.

Check for ceiling insulation. As a general rule, a house built before 1950 will have no insulation unless someone has since had it installed. Inadequate insulation, especially in the ceiling, means higher heating and cooling costs.

Have the plumbing, wiring and heating systems checked by an expert. Sometimes your city building inspector will evaluate a house for you. Or you may have to hire a private contractor.

"Whether you buy a house or not, the inspector's fee will surely be a good investment," Boyd said. "You may decide there's more to be repaired than you can afford so you'll look elsewhere for a home."

Dining room addition fulfills yen for change

Can 250 square feet of added floor space, mostly in a new dining area, dramatically upgrade an early 1950s house and enhance the lifestyle of the original owners?

At least one family has found that the answer to that question is yes, and homeowners in Western Wayne County — who live in just that style of house — can do much the same thing with their surroundings.

For the test family in this experiment, the dining addition was the answer to more than 15 years of yearning for more gracious living space, even though their home had enough bedrooms and baths, a living room, a kitchen-breakfast room complex and a daylight basement for hobbies.

UNFORTUNATELY, the house also had a traffic pattern that led straight through the living room and kitchen on the way to the bedrooms, because the back hall was a tedious detour.

Remodeling began with locating all living room built-ins along a new divider wall, setting the living room off from the kitchen and opening easy access to bedrooms and bathrooms.

The 23 by 15-foot dining room was added as an ell along the outside wall, where living room and kitchen meet, with access from both rooms on either side of the divider.

The remainder of the added floor space is a dressing room for the master bedroom built into the carport at the front of the house. This carport still is large enough for compact cars, and a new, large deck adjacent to the living and dining rooms provides the roof for a larger carport on the sloping lot.

THE WARM, inviting dining room has woven roll-up blinds on the outer window wall. Material matching the blinds covers the wall above a built-in buffet and the other walls are finished with tongue-and-groove western wood paneling.

Adding to the gracious mood of the dining room is the peaked ceiling.

Unusual design interest was added to the room with a wood-framed light fixture.

Institute showing sets anniversary

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the first exhibition ever held of Impressionist paintings, the Detroit Institute of Arts has assembled all its works by Edgar Degas for a 2 month showing.

Paintings by Degas were shown in the first showing of Impressionists in 1874.

Dr. Dewey F. Mosby, curator of European art, has installed the museum's collection of 24 works in two galleries of the North Wing to show the progression of the career of Hilaire Germain Edgar Degas from its refined Neo-classical beginning in 1853 to its freer, more Expressionistic conclusion a half century later.

The Detroit-owned art by the Frenchman includes five oils, three bronze sculptures, and 16 pastels, etchings, gouaches and other art on paper.

The show, entitled "Works by Degas in the Detroit Institute of Arts," will open Wednesday and run through Jan. 5.

For further information on the exhibit contact the art institute at 831-0360.

'Elizabeth R' reruns on television

A highly-acclaimed television production starring Academy Award-winning actress Glenda Jackson will return to the area this week, and Western Wayne County viewers will be able to see it on Channel 56, WTVS, the public television station.

"Elizabeth R," the sequel to "The Six Wives of Henry VIII," completes a British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC) series now concluding on the public broadcasting network.

The series follows Elizabeth — Henry VIII's daughter by Anne Boleyn — through her gradual transition from a young, beautiful princess — the hope of Protestant England — to a dried-up, ugly, unpopular old woman.

ALTHOUGH Elizabeth never married, the six 90-minute plays in the series — each written by a different author — are based loosely around her relationships to the many men in her life.

Alistair Cooke will introduce each program and provide a historical perspective.

As Elizabeth, Miss Jackson, won the Academy Award for her starring role in "Women in Love," skillfully interprets the multi-faceted personality of Henry VIII's most notable successor to the English throne.

The first play, "The Lion's Cub," portrays young Elizabeth during the brief reigns of her brother Edward and sister Mary and through her banishment to the Tower of London because of her suspect relationship with Thomas Seymour.

MANY CHARACTERS in this play are survivors of the reign of Henry VIII and are played by the same actors as in the "Henry" series.

"The Lion's Cub" was written by John Hale, who wrote the screen play for "Anne of the Thousand Days."

The second play, "The Marriage Game," written by Rosemary Ann Sisson, begins when Elizabeth, upon the death of her sister Mary,

Three groups to jazz it up

Appearing in concert at the Clarenceville High School Auditorium in Livonia on Nov. 24 and 25 will be Maynard Ferguson and his orchestra, a group which has entertained both young and old jazz buffs alike since the days of Boyd Raeburn, Jimmy Dorsey and Stan Kenton.

Ferguson was introduced with his new English band to Detroit audiences about three years ago. He has since made two appearances a year in the area, playing to standing-room-only crowds.

Two warm-up bands — the Okemus High Jazz Ensembles her is the Duc D'Alencon of France.

It covers her romance with Robert Dudley, the Earl of Leicester.

The third play, "Shadow in the Sun," written by Julian Mitchell, portrays Elizabeth as the most eligible lady in Europe, with great rulers seeking her hand for themselves or their heirs. But the only man who interests her is the Duc D'Alencon of France.

THE FOURTH drama, "Horrible Conspiracies," written by Hugh Whitmore, tells of Mary Queen of Scots' plots to assassinate Elizabeth.

Tickets are available at the Clarenceville box office, 20155 Middlebelt Rd. from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays. Further information may be obtained by calling Bonnie Garrison at 476-1060 or Midge Ellis at 591-6549.

The Belleville Area Citizens Club will hold its election of officers on Dec. 1. Club President Ollie Hunter, in announcing the election date for new officers, stated that the election is a very important function of club members and urged them to be at each of the weekly meetings in the coming month to assure a good selection of candidates for the various offices.

Esther Burlingame was named chairman of the nominating committee. She will be assisted by Pat Speaks and Betty Taylor. Any member desiring to be a candidate should contact a member of this committee as soon as possible, Hunter added.

LAST THURSDAY'S meeting of the club was held at Edgemont Elementary School, 125 Edgemont St., Belleville. The meeting attracted the largest number of members in "quite some time," it was stated.

Fourteen November birthdays and six November anniversaries were celebrated at the meeting.

Hunter also announced at the meeting that 75 members who were enrolled in the current affairs class sponsored by the Huron School District are to take a trip to the Turkeyville Farm located near Brighton on Nov. 14. The group will leave at 6:30 p.m. from the parking lot at the first United Methodist Church of Belleville.

To organize

Cancer patients meet

A meeting for cancer patients and their families living in Western Wayne County and the remainder of the metropolitan area will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 25 at the Westminster Church, 17567 Hubbell in Detroit.

The purpose of the meeting, according to spokesmen for the American Cancer Society, is to establish a "Make Today Count" chapter in Wayne County.

"Make Today Count" is an organization which works to bring together cancer patients and their families at informal meetings to discuss their mutual problems in a positive manner. Resource persons often are invited to speak on topics that are of interest and value to the group.

Any cancer patients, family members or friends are welcome to attend the organizational meeting. Further information may be obtained by calling the Wayne County unit of the American Cancer Society at 273-7060.

Belleville Cub Scouts earn several awards

Cub Scout Pack 793 sponsored by St. Anthony Catholic Church in Belleville presented numerous awards at the club's recent joint Halloween party-meeting at the church hall.

Winners of the best Halloween costumes were Tim Winnie, Doug Traskos, Chris Larcinese and Theresa Reckon. The winners were selected by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Talaga.

At the pack meeting, which was called to order by Cubmaster Dick Wilsey, Mrs. Darnell Cotham was accepted as a new den mother and Carol Brehmer as den leader coach.

AWARDS AND advancements were given as follows: Bobcat badges were presented to Chris Boulton, Jimmy Budd, John Moser, Jimmy Sams, James Brasington, Eric Stimach, Norman Farrell, Andy Winnie, Brian Innes, David Cotham and Larry Hay.

Others who received bobcat badges were Randy Pfiffer, Bill Welden, Larry Bamshart, Larry Smither, Peter Davis, James Jacysz, Michael McKinney, Mark Obeginski, David Weimman and Roy Carroll.

Jimmy Manforton got a wolf badge; Scott Wilsey, a bear badge and gold arrow; Eric Larcinese, a silver arrow under wolf badge; and Scott Wilsey and Larry Fleeman both received recruiter badges.

Denner and assistant denner awards went to Chris Boulton, Don Loberke, Tim Winnie, James Brasington, Brian Innes and Dale Renton.

A WEBELO ceremony was held by Jerry Rosinski and Carl Pfeiffer to advance four boys to the rank. They were Larry Barnshart, Bill Welden, Mike Winnie and Joe Roulo.

Other awards were presented to the following: Sean Brehmer, outdoorsman and 2-year pin; Doug Traskos, 2-year pin; Ken Duda, outdoorsman, sportsman and 2-year pin; Larry Fleeman, outdoorsman, forester, naturalist and 2-year pin; Joe Stypelkoski, engineer and 1-year pin; Tom Linderman, showman, sportsman and 2-year pin; and Dennis Stamper, scholar, artist and 2-year pin.

Randy Pfeiffer received outdoorsman, forester, sportsman and traveler badges and 1-year pin; Paul Innes, artist and scholar badges; Frank Lemenski, sportsman and traveler badges; and Jamie Rosinski, scholar, artist and 2-year pin.

Group sponsors talks on watershed problem

The Huron River Watershed Council will hold a general informational meeting at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 14 in the University of Michigan Matthaei Botanical Gardens, located on 1800 N. Dixboro Rd. east of Ann Arbor. The meeting is open to the public.

The topic for the informational program will be Michigan's Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Act, an act to provide for the control of soil erosion and to protect the waters of the state from sedimentation.

The speakers in the program will include Mark Hargitt, bureau of water management, Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR); Michael Craine, Livingston County Planning Department; and Clarence Hanselman, Washtenaw County Building Inspection.

In announcing the meeting, Council Executive Secretary Owen Jansson noted that sediment, while often less discernable than other forms of pollution, constitutes American's largest water pollutant by volume, contributing some one billion tons of material to the country's rivers and streams annually.

Fourteen special education students of teacher Debra Juriga prepared and served lunch to 50 teachers and staff from within the school district.

The reportedly successful and enjoyable project was conducted at the school on Oct. 30.

Since the beginning of school this year, the students have been learning about nutrition, meal planning, budgeting, food preparation and food service, Mrs. Juriga said. "This was done in conjunction with a career education unit," she added.

The students also went on a field trip to the Jiffy Mix Milling Co., made their own invitations and decorations, did all of the grocery shopping for the luncheon and prepared the entire meal.

The final test came when the students' prepared food was served to the specially-invited guests. The menu included sloppy joes and sandwiches, soup, corn, jello, gingerbread and beverages.

The students charged $1.25 for the entire meal. Asked if it was successful, Mrs. Juriga said, "It must have been, because all of the guests wanted a repeat performance—everyday."

Draft registration remains in force

Even though the draft is over, federal law still requires that all male persons in the United States except certain non-immigrant aliens be registered with the U.S. Selective Service.

Purchase of engines given OK

Young men must register within a 60-day period beginning 30 days prior to their 18th birthday, according to Jacob P. Asma, supervisor of the Allen Park Selective Service office.

The Romulus Board of Education has authorized the purchase of required 2-cycle engines for the small engine class at Romulus Senior High School upon the recommendation of School Supt. Robert L. McConeghy.

The school board also approved the employment of one teacher and six teacher aides at a recent session.
